Touched Off By Killing Of Negro

1,100 Troops Called Out After Maryland Violence

SALISBURY, Md. (AP) — About 800 National Guardsmen and 300 state troopers have been sent to Salisbury, a town on Maryland's Eastern Shore, following violence touched off by the killing of a Negro deaf mute by a white policeman in a burglary investigation.

Damage caused by some 1,000 Negroes Saturday was relatively light, but Gov. Spiro T. Agnew moved to guard against a recurrence.

On Sunday, the governor proclaimed a state of emergency for the town of 18,000, installed a 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. curfew and then activated the 6,000-member National Guard "in such numbers as shall be required."

There was no trouble in Salisbury when the activation order was issued at 5 p.m. Sunday, but Agnew said he felt the security of the area required the availability and presence of troops.

It was left to Maj. Gen. George M. Gelston, the state adjutant general, to decide how many troops were needed.

As the first guardsmen were being deployed at major intersections and in Negro areas Sunday night, a sniper reportedly fired two shots at a state police car.

Aided by the curfew and a heavy thunderstorm, streets were virtually deserted. About 20 persons were picked up as curfew violators and sent to the Poplar Hill correctional camp about 12 miles west of Salisbury.

Two lumber yard fires burned Sunday night at Fruitland, a town of about 2,000 located five miles west of Salisbury.

Donald Williams, the Wicomico County fire marshal, said three firebombs were found at one yard and two at the other. Total damage was estimated at $40,000 by the owners.

State's Atty. Alfred T. Truitt Jr. announced that Jerry C. Mason, a detective on the police force six years, was charged with manslaughter in the shooting death and released on $1,500 bond. The victim was Daniel Kenneth Henry, 22, a deaf mute.

Truitt said Mason and Cpl. John Guarino of the city police were questioning Henry at headquarters when a struggle began. He said Henry grabbed Guarino's gun from its holster as the struggle continued outside the building. Mason picked up the gun when it dropped on the sidewalk, shouted for Henry to stop as he ran off, and fired when Henry failed to heed the warning. Truitt said.

Services will be held Wednesday at 10 a.m. for a Smiths Ferry area woman who became Columbiana County's 11th traffic victim of the year as the result of a two-car collision Saturday evening.

Dr. Ray A. McCreight of the Four Mile United Presbyterian Church at Unionville will officiate during the rites at the Cannon Funeral Home in Midland for Mrs. Sophia Katish, 67, who was killed Saturday at 6:30 p.m. at the intersection of Route 62 and Johnson Rd., three miles east of Alliance in Columbiana County.

Punctual

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Samuel Linder, owner of a pharmacy in St. Louis' West End, has asked police to keep an eye on the store at about 1:30 p.m. each day. That's the time a young robber has held up Linder three times within 10 days. Linder said the youth took $120 at knife-point in the latest holdup Saturday.

There will be private viewing only at the request of the family, the funeral home said. Burial will be in Sylvania Hill Memorial Park, Rochester.

Mrs. Katish was pronounced dead at Alliance City Hospital. She was a passenger in a 1960 sedan operated by her husband, Dan Katish, 72.

They were en route home from Alliance, where they had visited a daughter, Mrs. William (Dorothy) Hoge. Mr. Katish was transferred from Alliance Hospital to Timken Mercy Hospital at Canton and is expected to undergo surgery today.

Patricia Peterson, 16, of Sebring, a passenger in the 1965 coach also involved in the accident and four others were admitted to Alliance Hospital.

Released Sunday were Randy Wilson, 17, driver of the 1965 sedan, and two other passengers in his car, Juanita Hupp, 17, of Sebring and Terry Johnson, 17, also of Sebring.

Officers of the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said the mishap, which is still under investigation, occurred when the eastbound Katish car was struck by the Wilson car, southbound on Johnson Rd., which failed to stop for a stop sign at the intersection.

The fronts of both autos were demolished, the patrol reported.

Mrs. Katish was born in Youngstown Oct. 11, 1900, but had resided in the Midland

Price Of Gold Hits Record In London

LONDON (AP) — The price of gold hit a new high on the London free market today, but the British pound recovered slightly from Friday's record low.

"People are concentrating on the French franc," one dealer said. "The troubles there have taken the heat off us."

The price of gold was fixed at $42 an ounce, up 50 cents from Friday afternoon's fixing. Gold passed $40 an ounce for the first time last Wednesday.

The pound rebounded from Friday's all-time low of $2.3854. At one point after the foreign exchange market reopened today, it had climbed 22 points to $2.3876, then settled around $2.3872.

The franc dropped 1.25 to a rate of 11.7975 francs to the British pound.

The $42 price for gold was the highest since the London free market opened April 1 under the new two-tier system for selling gold.

It was believed here that speculators bought substantial amounts of gold in Zurich at the peak of the March gold rush at about $43 an ounce, and the Financial Times said selling pressure may enter and check the rise when the free market price reaches $43.

U.S., South Viet Aides Hold Parley

Diem Agrees U.S. Affirmative Step In Talks Correct

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
PARIS (AP)—Vietnam peace negotiators W. Averell Harriman and Cyrus R. Vance called on South Vietnam's observer here today for a 45-minute review of the talks thus far.

Harriman told newsmen as he left the South Vietnamese consulate that he and Bui Diem, who is South Vietnam's ambassador to Washington, had agreed "the affirmative position taken by the United States delegation in the talks was the correct one, rather than getting involved in the propaganda exercise which has characterized the Hanoi approach."

When he arrived at the South Vietnamese consulate, Harriman told newsmen he wanted to "get some information from the South Vietnamese delegation and to keep them fully informed. We want to get their point of view and judgment."

Knowledgeable American and French diplomats believe a compromise way will be found to end the U.S. bombing of North Vietnam, reduce North Vietnamese infiltration into the South and move to full-scale peace negotiations.

But the possibility that the differences between the Americans and the North Vietnamese will persist and that the talks will eventually collapse cannot be ruled out.

The expectation of a compromise agreement rests on the belief that the final purpose of both sides is to make peace.

That remains to be proved. One main purpose of the United States and North Vietnam in the talks to date has been to find out what the other's real expectation is. A second obviously is to make propaganda, and presumably a third is to put bargaining positions on the table.

Ambassadors W. Averell Harriman and Xuan Thuy began their second week of "official conversations" today with no meeting scheduled until Wednesday. Meanwhile the exchanges continue at long range.

North Vietnam's Deputy Foreign Minister Hoang Van Loi said in Damascus: "Strong and deadly blows must be dealt to American troops in Vietnam to force United States negotiators to listen to reason in Paris. Without more military victories against the Americans on the battlefield, the Paris peace talks are doomed to failure."

U.S. officials said their evidence is that those words realistically reflect North Vietnamese policy. They said North Vietnamese officers captured in South Vietnam recently reported they were getting orders for attacks which served no tactical military purpose and must have been politically motivated.

Phone Pact Is Ratified By Installers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The A F L - C I O Communications Workers say telephone installers, who earlier rejected a new Bell System pact, have ratified the contract in a second vote.

The union's Washington headquarters said Sunday the mail ballot count was 8,719 for the three-year contract and 6,347 against.

Some 23,000 installers had been involved in the nationwide walkout, along with about 175,000 other telephone workers in about 40 states.

Most of the installers had been back at work pending the second vote results.

The pact includes 60 cents in wages and fringe benefits totaling nearly 20 per cent over its three-year life. The installers averaged $3.27 per hour before the strike, compared with a pre-walkout average of $2.79 for other Bell workers.

Kill 127, Capture 58 Weapons

Marines Repulse Attacks At Khe Sanh, Con Thien

B GEORGE ESPEL

Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese troops made three ground attacks on U.S. Marines along South Vietnam's northern frontier Sunday and sent big rockets smashing into fuel and ammunition stores at the headquarters of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division.

The U.S. Command said the Marines repulsed the attacks near Khe Sanh and Con Thien, killing 127 North Vietnamese soldiers and capturing 58 weapons. Twelve Marines were reported killed and 49 wounded.

But the enemy's 100-pound rockets did "heavy" damage to the ammunition stores at Camp Evans, the 1st Air Cav headquarters 16 miles northwest of Hue, as well as "light" damage to fuel stores, material and facilities. "Light" personnel casualties also were reported.

Heavy damage to the ammunition means that so much of it was blown up that the men at the camp could not continue their mission until their supply was replenished.

U.S. officers say five divisions of allied and North Vietnamese forces face each other in the northern sector on almost a man for man basis. The U.S. Command believes that enough allied troops are on hand to handle anything the enemy may try in the five provinces below the demilitarized zone.

In the heaviest attack Sunday, North Vietnamese troops opened up on a small Marine unit sweeping a road two miles southeast of the Khe Sanh combat base in the northwest corner of South Vietnam.

Marine tanks quickly reinforced the ground troops to help beat back the enemy troops, who the Marines said left 66 dead on the battlefield. Eight Marines were reported killed and 34 wounded.

A mile away, other North Vietnamese troops attacked a Marine company, but 43 of the enemy were killed and 33 enemy weapons were left on the battlefield, Marine spokesmen said. Eight Marines were reported wounded.

At the eastern end of the DMZ, another Marine patrol ran into 50 or 60 North Vietnamese troops near Con Thien, and in a heavy exchange of machine-gun and small arms fire, 18 of the enemy were reported killed. Marine casualties were four dead and seven wounded, spokesmen said.

The U.S. Command also announced that allied forces have killed or captured more than 10,000 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese in six weeks of Operation Complete Victory, the 100,000-man campaign to keep enemy pressure off Saigon. The casualty figures include the repulse of the Viet Cong's second attack on Saigon two weeks ago, a small-scale followup to their lunar new year offensive in February.

The U.S. Command reported 1,073 allied soldiers killed and 4,980 wounded. Of these, 574 of the dead and 1,888 of the wounded were South Vietnamese. More than 90 per cent of the rest were U.S. troops, military spokesmen said. Australia, New Zealand and Thailand also have men in the operation.

Despite the operation, the Viet Cong marked North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh's 78th birthday Sunday with a 45-minute rocket attack on the capital.

More than 20 100-pound rockets hit the heart of Saigon shortly after midnight Saturday, killing 11 Vietnamese and wounding 51. One U.S. soldier was slightly wounded.

The South Vietnamese military command had said intelligence information indicated the Viet Cong planned a widespread attack.

One truck driver was killed and another injured Sunday in a freak accident at the Mingo plant of Wheeling Steel Corp.

Killed in an explosion and fire caused by molten slag spilling into a puddle of water was Roy D. Whitmer, 56, of Wintersville.

Whitmer was in a panel truck and was stopped at a railroad crossing in the plant when the accident happened. Roy Robert 47, of Bridgeport, Rt. 1, was in a semi tractor-trailer rig behind him.

A diesel engine was pulling four loads of molten slag through the crossing when part of the load spilled into a puddle. Whitmer's truck was engulfed in flames, and the gas tank was ignited.

Roberts suffered burns and a knee injury.

President's Resignation Being Urged

Paris At Standstill; Workers Off Jobs Soar To Millions

By RODNEY ANGOVE
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — Strikes snowballed rapidly across France in a wave of social ferment today and the nation approached total paralysis. Paris was at a virtual standstill with not a bus, subway or train moving. Housewives rushed to stock up on food.

Joining the walkouts amid calls for the resignation of President Charles de Gaulle were workers in coal mines, automobile factories, ports and airports. Even war widows and war veterans joined the movement with demands for higher pensions.

De Gaulle conferred with top ministers Sunday but took no immediate action.

The number of workers off their jobs ballooned into the millions. Hundreds of business concerns were closed down either by worker walkouts or because of the paralysis of transport and other services.

Garbage piled in the streets of Paris. There have been no collections since Saturday because of a strike of garbage men and streetcleaners.

Thousands of workers occupied the big Peugeot auto factory at Sochaux in eastern France near the Swiss border. All of the government-owned Renault auto plants have been occupied since Friday.

The 22,000 workers of the Michelin tire factory at Clermont Ferrand in central France went on strike and occupied the premises.

Striking Marseille dockworkers ran red flags to the tops of masts of all French ships. The 3,000 dockers of neighboring Ciotat were also on strike.

About two-thirds of the 65,000 workers at various Citroen auto plants around the country were unable to work.

In Paris, lines formed in front of some banks even before opening time. Bank employees got strike orders Saturday. The Bank of France delayed the opening of the foreign exchange market.

Electricity workers in Paris continued to provide power although they have occupied the factories since Saturday night.

Food supplies reached Les Halles, Paris' big central market, while truck drivers remained at their jobs.

Most miners were out. The 45,000 coal miners of the North Basin joined the strike of their comrades in Lorraine.

The 10,000 men of the Alsace potash mines and the 7,000 men of the mines in the Blanzay Basin, central France, were also out.

The 1,700 men of a French oil refinery at Le Havre and the 2,000 of a Shell refinery near Marseille shut down their tools.

Reports of other stoppages poured in from outposts: International Harvester at St. Dizier, nearly 10,000 in the Sud-Aviation plant at the port of Rochefort, and an unlimited strike voted by the same firm's factory at Marignane, near Marseille.

Roads leading into Paris were clogged by huge traffic jams. Gasoline stations, uncertain of their supplies, were limiting the quantities sold to each customer.

French Channel ferries to Britain remained in port.

The forecast calls for cool with scattered light showers tonight and Tuesday.

Shafer's Aides Push Drive Against Cigarette Smuggling

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Shafer administration stepped up its drive today for legislative enactment of a comprehensive bill to stiffen penalties for cigarette smuggling in Pennsylvania.

Atty. Gen. William C. Bennett, in a letter to the 10 legislative leaders of both parties, declared:

"It is absolutely essential that we marshal our resources to combat cigarette smuggling in the state. This legislation would be a tremendous step forward both practically and psychologically in the battle against smuggling."

The major drawback appears to be the reluctance of both sides to touch the bill because it would entail a re-enactment of the controversial 13-cent-a-pack cigarette tax passed by the 1967 General Assembly.

Democrats are balking for fear re-enactment of the tax would prejudice a suit they have pending in Commonwealth Court challenging Senate passage of the levy last Oct. 10, with only 25 votes.

Republicans would simply prefer to avoid resurrecting the action for another round of legislative oratory, or even another vote test in the Senate.

The tax was approved in the Senate last October after the attorney general advised the chamber that since one seat was vacant because of a two-year court suit, the normal constitutional majority of 26 was trimmed by one vote.

Democrats promptly filed suit in Commonwealth Court seeking to declare the tax invalid. The court has yet to hear arguments. In his letter to the leadership,

Columbia U. To Take Action Against Student Protesters

NEW YORK (AP) — Columbia University says it has started disciplinary action against students accused of taking part in campus disturbances over the past several weeks.

Henry S. Coleman, acting dean of Columbia College, a unit of the university, said Sunday about 25 letters had been sent to students of that college telling them:

"You are charged with participating in the recent demonstrations which started on April 23, 1968."

The students were given deadlines running from Tuesday afternoon through Friday to appear at the dean's office or face suspension.

The letters were the first of more than 500 expected to be sent to student protesters in the next few weeks. The Ivy League school has a total student enrollment of about 25,000.

Mark Rudd, 20-year-old Columbia College junior from Maplewood, N.J., leader of the Students for a Democratic Society, a major dissenter group, was one of those getting a letter this week.

Coleman said students who admit participating in the demonstrations, during which five campus buildings were occupied until cleared by police, could be put on disciplinary probation for a year.

Coleman said that no final disciplinary action would be taken until pending criminal charges against students have been resolved.

Coleman said the letters were sent in accordance with the guidelines established by the Joint Committee on Disciplinary Affairs. The committee was appointed by the senior faculty to decide on discipline for demonstrations that ended normal university procedures for the semester.

Traffic Cases Bring Fines

Four motorists were fined for traffic violations at hearings this morning before Municipal Court Judge Samuel Chertoff. Several others forfeited bonds.

James Rayl of 2121 LaCroft Ave. was fined $10 and costs after pleading guilty to crashing a traffic light Saturday at 6th and Jefferson Sts.

John W. Tice of Hammondsville was fined $5 and costs for a traffic light violation. He was cited Sunday morning at Webster Way and Dresden Ave.

Miss Olive B. Butcher of Newell was fined $10 and costs for driving left of center. She was arrested Saturday at 2:30 p.m. by Patrolman David Mumaw. She also was cited for a traffic light violation and pleaded guilty to both.

Judge Chertoff dismissed the traffic light violation after the officer testified that Miss Butcher became nervous over being arrested and went through the light while on her way to the police station. She was ordered to pay costs.

Donald K. Eiford of the Cannons Mills Rd. received a suspended fine of $10 and costs after pleading guilty to a patrol charge of parking on the main highway. He was cited Saturday at the intersection of Routes 7 and 30. He told the court he is a Marine home on leave after having been overseas.

Melvin H. Clark Jr. of 317½

Jackson Sts. was ordered to pay court costs on a reckless operation charge. He was cited Saturday on the Route 30 freeway after his car struck the guardrails. Clark told the court he fell asleep, explaining there had been a death in the family and "he had been very busy."

Ralph E. Ferguson of 322 Oakgrove Rd., Wellsville, pleaded innocent to a charge of failure to yield half the roadway. His hearing was set for Thursday morning at 9.

Ferguson was cited by the patrol Friday following an accident on the Campground Rd.

Three motorists arrested by city police for going the wrong way on a one-way street forfeited bonds of $17.50 each. All were cited in Persimmon Alley. They are Robert P. Rasor of Akron, Eugene R. Miner of Kensington and Paul O. Troeter of Beaver Falls.

Forfeiting $17.50 bonds on patrol charges of failing to halt for a stop sign were Hugh S. Rippes of Bethany, W. Va., and Sharon Louise McCarty of Chester RD 1.

Richard Franklin Clark of Youngstown forfeited a $22.50 bond for speeding and Danny Ray Truax of Weirton forfeited $32.50 for the same charge. Clark was cited on Route 7 and Truax on Route 30, both by the patrol.

Wreck Claims Life Of Weirton Youth, 17

WEIRTON — Requiem Mass will be sung Tuesday at 10 a.m. in St. Joseph the Worker Church for Richard Young, 17, of 117 Kusic St., who died Saturday at North Wheeling Hospital from injuries suffered in a two-car traffic mishap near Wheeling.

Burial will be in St. Paul's Cemetery.

Friends are being received from 7 to 9 tonight at the Bellance Funeral Home.

The Ohio County sheriff's office said the youth was a passenger in a car driven by James Kreyenbuhl, also 17, of Weirton.

The Kreyenbuhl auto collided with a car driven by Betty J. Clifton, 35, of Warwood.

Kreyenbuhl was cited for failing to have his car under control.

Both the Kreyenbuhl youth and the other driver were listed in fair condition at North Wheeling Hospital.

Auto Injures Horse Near Chester Sunday

A horse owned by a Chester area resident was destroyed by Hancock County humane officer John Roefaro after it was injured in a mishap with an auto early Sunday.

The horse owned by Judy Ashbee of Chester RD 1 ran into an auto operated by Mrs. Ruth DeBee of Chester RD 1 on Arner Line Rd. about 1:10 a.m.

Mrs. DeBee told Sheriff's deputies she was approaching a hillcrest and did not see the horse which jumped onto the hood then raced away. It was found later in a neighbor's yard.

It is said that Weddell seals will dive as deep as 1,500 feet in search of food.

City Officers Investigate 6 Car Mishaps Over Weekend

No one was injured in six minor accidents investigated over the weekend and early today by city police.

A 1964 convertible operated by Thomas R. Sisco, 22, of Rochester, Pa., struck the guardrails along the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." at 5:15 a.m. today.

Sisco told Patrolman Arthur Peters he was eastbound when a blue vehicle forced him off the road into the guardrails. The other motorist did not stop. Sisco said. The front fender of the convertible was bent and scratched.

A car operated by Mrs. Ethel T. Melvin, 35, of 23 B Midland Heights, Midland, was hit in the rear by one operated by Stephen A. McKean, 19, of 1253 Avondale Dr., Ohioview, Industry, Sunday at 3:05 p.m. on Pennsylvania Ave. at Andrews Ave.

Mrs. Melvin told Patrolman Karl W. Samples she had halted for another car making a left turn. McKean said his brakes failed.

CARS OPERATED by Franklin D. Hanlon, 35, of 2137 Pennsylvania Ave. and William F. Brooks, 34, of 936 Fairview St. figured in a collision Saturday at 6:43 p.m. on W. 8th St. at Church St.

Hanlon said he was traveling west on 8th St. when another car pulled from Church St. and struck him in the side. Brooks said he had halted at the intersection and looked both ways, but did not see the other auto. Patrolman D. M. Garvey investigated.

Richard D. Cochran, 31, of 541 Main St., Wellsville, was cited driving an unsafe vehicle after his car struck a utility pole on W. 8th St. near Shady-side Ave. Saturday at 6:02 p.m.

He said he was driving toward Wellsville when his 1959 sedan ran out of gas. He said he was pushing the car backward to turn it around when it drifted into the pole. The globe was broken from a street light by the impact.

Cochran was cited by Patrolman J. W. Woods who said the car had three smooth tires, no windshield wipers, no brake light and one defective headlight.

HE WAS fined $10 and costs after pleading guilty today in Municipal Court. Cochran also was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance, but Judge Samuel Chertoff dismissed the charge. He said Cochran could not be charged with this violation because he was pushing the car, not driving it.

Harlan Lovejoy, 33, of Meakin St. and Mrs. Mary B. Landfried of 414 Elizabeth St. were charged with failure to yield one half the road following a collision Saturday at 4:43 p.m. at the intersection of Anderson Blvd. and McKinnon Ave.

However, Lovejoy failed to appear in court this morning, forfeiting a $17.50 bond. Mrs. Landfried pleaded no contest and was found innocent.

Lovejoy told Patrolman Woods he thought the woman was going through the intersection as he was attempting a right turn. Mrs. Landfried said she was turning left from McKinnon onto Anderson Blvd. She said she halted before the collision.

A car operated by Roy D. Hull, 42, of 1038 Bank St. went down a small embankment, damaging bushes and a small wire fence at the home of Norman Myler of 842 Laura Ave. Saturday at 10:18 a.m.

Patrolman David Mumaw, who investigated, said the accident occurred on Bank St. about 100 feet west of Laura. Myler, driving a 1959 convertible owned by Alice Stull of 402 Walnut St., said he was coasting down Bank to start the car and when he applied the brakes, the car swerved left and went over the hill.

The Task Before Us

Many East Liverpool people learned for the first time in The Review Friday some of the attitudes of Negroes in this city.

The story about a meeting of reporter Robert Popp with a representative group of Negroes revealed their honest outlook on housing, job discrimination, lack of communication with the rest of the community along with some of the advances which have been made to ease inequities over recent years.

No one in the 1960's can be unaware of the problems which blacks and whites have been trying to solve across the United States, bringing some social, education and economic changes, but leaving too many significant differences which have resulted in demonstrations, growing crime, new violence.

It has been difficult for some to relate the inequities of Detroit, New York and Chicago or of Memphis, Montgomery or Miami with East Liverpool, Midland or Wellsville. Yet, they are there, and the colored people and the whites who have eyes to see with know they are there — not in the sickening wholesale poverty of the big city, not in the vicious racism of the South's back country, but present and festering and unfair.

In East Liverpool Negroes have earned places on the police force, with the school faculty, in some other areas of employment. Elsewhere, there has been only "tokenism" or outright reluctance to hire the colored. At the same time, there have been only a limited number of trained and skilled young men and women available for local employment, and many of them have gone to larger cities.

Discrimination in subtler forms is apparent elsewhere, certainly not in the degree as ten or five years ago, but still existing and out of step with the times and the needs of the city.

More and more men and women on both sides of the unseen barriers are facing up to their real responsibilities to judge each other for what they are and what they can do, not for what they are thought to be or in the perspective of some ill-conceived stereotype.

Everyone in America, everyone in East Liverpool deserves an equal opportunity. Far too many are not yet getting that opportunity, far too many have come to think that the opportunity itself warrants the rewards.

This must be changed, and sensible, clear-thinking people must put their energies to the task, not out of fear or political pressure or a sense of guilt or shame, but with an intent to make this community and this nation a better place for all to live.

Television And Politics

It is not known at this time what role television will play in the coming presidential election — but it will play a role.

Ever since 1924 when radio covered live the first national political convention, the broadcasting medium has figured in elections.

Everybody remembers the Nixon-Kennedy debates that played such a decisive part in the 1960 presidential campaign. But that wasn't the first time broadcasting had been important to a candidate.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT launched his political comeback with his "happy warrior" speech over radio in 1924 when he nominated Alfred E. Smith for president at the Democratic convention.

All of Franklin's 1932 campaign speeches were broadcast and after he became President, his radio fireside chats became famous.

The 1940 conventions were the first to be televised and were insignificant because only a few people had sets. Even in 1948 television was still a small industry. Radio was the medium politicians were interested in.

In the 1948 campaigning, Thomas E. Dewey and Harold E. Stassen, leading Republican candidates locked horns in a radio debate shortly before the Oregon primary.

Almost everyone conceded Dewey won the debate. He went on to win the primary and the nomination but lost the presidency.

Observers felt Dwight D. Eisenhower was helped by television in 1952 because it effectively conveyed his warmth and sincerity to the voters.

It is usually forgotten that little-known Illinois Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson had been promoted to national fame in just a few weeks through television appearances.

When television beamed the 1960 Nixon-Kennedy debates to 70 million viewers, John F. Kennedy received the boost that propelled him into the presidency.

TACTICS CHANGED drastically in the 1964 election when Democrats relied heavily on a series of television ads conceived by a leading advertising agency. The agency was instructed to "attack, jolt Goldwater, put him on the defensive from the beginning."

Barry Goldwater could never erase some of the erroneous images conveyed by the spot ads.

This year more money will be spent for television time by politicians than ever before — and some unlucky candidate may unknowingly be digging himself an expensive grave.

Bad makeup, a slip of the tongue or a memory lapse could spell instant failure for a candidate.

It is indeed too early to tell what will result in this election year from the alliance between politics and television — but something will be forthcoming. Hopefully, it will be in the best interest of the country.

Brown From Where?

A 15-year-old spokesman for Wellsville Boy Scout Troop 19 denied over the weekend the troop's Indian dance practice is any way responsible for the current rain spell, adding that the culprit who started the rumor "is all wet." Meanwhile, a group of Western Beaver girls will pour their suntan oil onto a sand sculpture of Troy Donahue in hopes for some blue sky next weekend. By the way, whatever happened to that ace reporter, Brown from "The Sun"?

India's Postmen Get New Job

India, which has probably the highest birth-rate of any nation in the world, is going to try a new wrinkle to reduce its population growth. And the postman will have a vital role in the program.

The idea is to have the postman continue to deliver mail, as usual, but also to sell American-made contraceptives.

The theory, according to a government announcement, is that "the rural population, which normally is reluctant to go to a grocer to buy contraceptives, will be willing to approach postmen who have a ready supply."

To keep the postmen working at their additional duties, the government will give them free supplies of their new product as bonuses.

India's new family planning campaign technique is novel. How successful it will be in helping to contain that nation's population explosion remains to be seen.

However, the fact that the huge country is seeking new ways to curb its runaway population growth will be greeted with applause in many nations.

Nixon Ahead

Former vice president Richard Nixon got more votes on the Republican ticket in the Nebraska primary than the combined votes received by Sen. Robert Kennedy of New York and Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota.

If the additional votes for Gov. Ronald Reagan of California and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York are added to the Nixon total, the entire Republican vote was 190,000, as compared with 152,000 for the whole Democratic vote.

Incidentally, it was the biggest vote given either party in a presidential primary in Nebraska history.

Does this mean that Nebraska is to be a Republican state in the next election? President Johnson carried the state in 1964, though in the six previous presidential elections the Republicans won the electoral vote.

IT MAY WELL BE wondered, also, what significance can be attached to the victory of Sen. Kennedy over Sen. McCarthy.

The name of Vice President Humphrey — the contender for the Democratic nomination who will doubtless have the support of President Johnson — was not on the ballot and had to be written in because Mr. Humphrey entered the race after the filing process had been completed.

He nevertheless obtained an 8 per cent write-in, as contrasted with the 5 per cent write-in for Gov. Rockefeller. It would appear from these returns that Mr. Humphrey may still get much of Nebraska's support at the national convention.

The Gallup Poll among Democratic voters which was announced this week showed Mr. Humphrey with 40 per cent, as contrasted with 31 per cent for Sen. Kennedy and 19 per cent for Sen. McCarthy. This shows a drop of 4 points in Sen. Kennedy's strength since a similar poll was taken in April.

There seems to be no doubt that Vice President Humphrey is gaining ground. The next three primaries — in Oregon, California and South Dakota — will not reflect this strength with the voters, as he is not on the ballot. But there will again be a write-in vote which probably will be larger than he received in the previous primaries.

The Humphrey campaign has taken on considerable momentum in the last 10 days and unquestionably administration officials right down the line favor Mr. Humphrey for the nomination. The President recently cautioned his cabinet officers and high officials to refrain from participating in the preconvention campaign.

But this doesn't mean that many of the officeholders throughout the country who are aware of the importance of a position sympathetic with the Johnson administration will miss any chance to pass the word along to the local organizations that Mr. Humphrey now is the "favorite son" of the administration.

On the Republican side, the vote for Gov. Reagan, which amounted to 22 per cent as compared with Mr. Nixon's 71 per cent, could indicate that the ultraconservative segment of the party is expressing itself.

Mr. Nixon probably will not lose any of the Reagan votes if he is nominated for the presidency, but it could build up the movement to give the California governor the vice-presidential nomination.

LIKEWISE, it has been suggested by some Rockefeller supporters that maybe Gov. Reagan would be acceptable for second place on the ticket if Gov. Rockefeller wins the Republican nomination.

On the whole, the Nebraska primary doesn't settle anything. It does confirm the results in other primaries thus far which show Mr. Nixon as the favorite of most of the regular Republicans throughout the country.

The campaign for Gov. Rockefeller has not yet achieved the momentum which his supporters had hoped it would. But they are by no means discouraged by the results and point out that there is plenty of time during the next two and a half months for the merits of the Rockefeller candidacy to be given consideration by the progressional politicians.

At this stage of the preconvention campaign, however, Mr. Nixon unquestionably is out in front.

Primary Poor-Mouthing

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — There is a tendency this year for all presidential candidates to poor-mouth the results of a primary. In the old days a candidate would brag that he was going to sweep a state and there was no doubt that his victory was in the bag.

But with the pollsters and statisticians examining every primary result in minute detail, the candidates are all crying that they'll be lucky to still be listed in a Harris survey.

Over at Kennedy headquarters, a manager told me, when I asked him how Kennedy would do in South Dakota, "We'll be very satisfied with two per cent of the vote. After all, we got in late. Bobby really hasn't had a chance to campaign and, besides, his name is still unknown in the state."

"HOW DO YOU THINK McCarthy will do in South Dakota?"

"He'll probably get 70 per cent of the vote. It would obviously be a big defeat for him if he didn't."

"And what about Hubert Humphrey?"

"Hubert has to do very well in South Dakota. If he gets less than 25 per cent, we'll have to bow out."

McCarthy's people were furious when I told them Kennedy's managers said if Gene got less than 70 per cent of the vote he'd be in trouble. "We don't expect more than 3 per cent. After all, we haven't any money and, besides, Hubert Humphrey is taking a lot of votes away from us. We should have an overwhelming defeat in South Dakota. But if Bobby gets less than 80 per cent, he can kiss California goodbye."

At Humphrey headquarters, they were also pleading disaster. "Hubert got in too late for the primaries. If he gets a vote of any kind, we'll be surprised."

"The Kennedy people told me Hubert has to get at least 25 per cent of the votes."

"Twenty-five per cent—they're out of their minds. They're just trying to make us look bad if we don't. Remember in Indiana when Bobby only got 42 per cent of the vote and he was supposed to get 50 per cent? Well, that was worse than Branigan getting 33 per cent, because Branigan only expected 30 per cent."

"IT SEEMS TO ME," I said, "that all the Democratic candidates are predicting very low figures for themselves so if they go over those figures they'll look good, and they're predicting high figures for their opponents so if they go below them, the opposition will look bad."

"I won't comment on that, but if Humphrey gets one-half of 1 per cent of the Swedish vote in South Dakota with the little campaigning he's done, then we'll be very encouraged."

I thought at Nixon's headquarters they would at least be optimistic, since he is not running against anyone, but I found nothing but despair.

"Vice President Nixon without opposition will be lucky to win the Republican nomination."

"How do you explain that?"

"Why would anyone vote in a primary when there is only one candidate running? If Nixon gets 85 votes in South Dakota, we'd be surprised."

"But he's got to do better than that, particularly with Rockefeller creeping up on him in the polls."

"Our people feel that if Rockefeller doesn't get at least 349,000 write-in votes, we can consider his effort in the West a defeat."

"BUT IF NIXON is on the ballot and you say he'll be lucky to get 35 votes, how can Rocky get 349,000 write-in votes, when you can't write in a name in South Dakota?"

"That's his problem."

On the basis of the tour, I decided to be very suspicious of what each of the candidates was predicting for himself as victories. To hear them tell it, they're lucky to be in the race at all.

Black Power And Religion

Racial Progress Urged In Church

Negroes in the Unitarian Church will ask for more authority at the church's four-day General Assembly opening in Cleveland on Saturday (May 25).

Black power is emerging in the church. The confrontation that lies immediately ahead in the Unitarian-Universalist Church is significant not for its size but for its perspective. A group that calls itself the Black Caucus in the church wants a bigger say in church affairs.

Leaders of the Black Caucus early in January hinted at severing ties with the church. They said the General Assembly, meeting in Cleveland next Saturday, "will determine the future role, if any, of blacks in this denomination." Negroes represent 1 per cent or less of the 167,000 Unitarian membership.

The Negro demands were repeated at a Chicago meeting of the Black Caucus in February. Leaders rejected reorganization of the church's Council on Religion and Race as "not adequate" and recommended abolishment of the council.

IN ITS PLACE they want a Black Affairs Council similar to the church's Laymen's League. It would be funded at $250,000 a year. The Black Caucus would appoint its six Negro and three white members.

On the eve of his recent election as president of the new United Methodist Church's Council on Religion and Race, Bishop Eugene M. Frank of St. Louis made a firm commitment that his 11-million-member group would make "new and vigorous" efforts to become "completely interracial." If more racial progress is not made, Bishop Frank said, "some of us will have to desert the method of voluntarism."

The new Protestant body is a merger of the Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren Church. At the Dallas convention in April, groups called "Black Methodists for Church Renewal" and "Methodists for Church Renewal" demanded complete integration in the church by the mandatory date of 1972.

The general conference voted to withdraw a $10 million investment portfolio from the First National City Bank of New York because the bank had participated in renewal of a loan to the apartheid-minded South African government.

Negro clergymen of three Lutheran denominations protested May 9 that racial prejudice exists within their churches. Receiving the statements were the heads of the Lutheran Church in America, the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod and the American Lutheran Church.

American bishops of the Roman Catholic Church at a meeting in St. Louis in April endorsed the conclusion of the President's Commission on Civil Disorders that white racism is the primary cause of urban unrest.

WHITE CLERGYMEN of the three principal religious faiths in the United States — Protestant, Catholic and Jewish — began in the summer of 1963 to join protest marchers. They carried placards and risked arrest to register their commitment to the techniques as well as the goals of civil rights demonstrators. They are notably in the foreground in the Poor Peoples' Campaign in Washington.

The new United Methodists in Dallas voted overwhelmingly for eventual union with eight other churches into a 20-million-member Protestant denomination.

Most churches are moving slowly toward what the liberals call "fighting for moral and social justice." One preacher of the "theology of hope," Jurgen Moltmann of Germany, attests: "The world is waiting for a revolutionary Christianity which will call the world bad and change it."

Mail Brings Surprises

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

When Secretary of State Dean Rusk was a Boy Scout, he was Georgia's "knot-tying champ."

The high cost of government: Federal aid programs for fiscal 1969 will total about $20 billion, three times the $6.6 billion such programs cost in 1959.

Alcoholism, which takes at least 11,000 American lives each year, is becoming an increasing problem among older segments of the population. The death rate from drinking disorders has increased 27 per cent among men over 70 in the last 10 years and 39 per cent among women in that age group.

If you value your pet cat or dog better keep it at home or on a leash. "Petnapers" are now stealing some two million cats and dogs a year.

IT CERTAINLY is hard to figure out real estate values. In 1867 the United States bought all Alaska for a mere $7.2 million. Just 90 years later the late John D. Rockefeller Jr., signed a check for $8.5 million in payment for the site here of the United Nations. Which will history rate as the bigger bargain?

Our quotable notables: "You gain strength, courage and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You must do the things you think you cannot do."—Eleanor Roosevelt.

Precedence: Because Delaware was the first state to ratify the federal Constitution, it's delegation is usually given honor rank at national events such as presidential inaugurations.

Putting asunder: 100 years ago there was one divorce in the United States for every 36 marriages, in 1900 one for every 12. Now the divorce rate seems to be holding pretty steady at about one for every four marriages.

Home is a dangerous place for kids. It is estimated that some 250,000 household products are potentially poisonous to children if gulped in quantity. The items they accidentally poison themselves with most often are drugs, particularly aspirin, cleaning compounds, bleaches and insecticides.

HAVING TROUBLE figuring out what makes you tired? No wonder. At a symposium in Paris on fatigue, 800 psychologists, socialists and physicians spent four days discussing the problem—and failed to agree on a definition of what fatigue is.

Worth remembering: "You are getting pretty old when you start bragging that you feel as young as you ever did."

History lesson: Can you name the U.S. presidents who bore the following nicknames: "Philosopher of Democracy," "Napoleon of the Stump," "Son of His Grandfather," and "Houdini in the White House"? They were Thomas Jefferson, James K. Polk, Benjamin Harrison, and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

You're wrong if you think icebergs taste salty. They are huge chunks of frozen fresh water that have broken off glaciers. They have been known to reach a height of 550 feet. It would take up to 2,000 tons or more of explosives to blow up some icebergs, but the warm waters of the Gulf Stream can melt them in a couple of weeks.

Four wheels with an engine are safer than two wheels with an engine. The injury rate among the 6½ per cent of students at the University of California who ride motorcycles is 100 times that among the students—55 per cent—who use automobiles.

LONG PULL down California's Napa River where a 324-foot section of twin-bore tube is towed to San Francisco. The section will be lowered into place under San Francisco Bay as part of the four-mile-long tunnel for the Bay Area Rapid Transit District.

Senator Set To OK House Holiday Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate sponsor of a measure to create five new three-day federal holidays says he'll ditch it in favor of a House-passed measure offering one less long-week-end holiday.

Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., said Sunday he's confident the measure passed 212 to 83 by the House—and backed by business and labor alike—will clear the Senate.

"I think we will be better advised to take the House bill," said Smathers, "and if we do, I feel confident we will be able to pass it."

The House measure, once considered a sure candidate for defeat, would transfer Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day and Veterans Day to Monday and would make Columbus Day a national holiday—also to be celebrated on a Monday.

Inclusion of Columbus Day in the bill is credited with winning it House passage by generating support from big-city members with large Italian-American and Catholic constituencies.

The bill wouldn't take effect until 1971—a concession to calendar-makers. While it would legally apply only to federal employees, state and local governments and private employers would be expected to follow suit.

Enactment would mean five three-day weekends, since Labor Day already falls on Monday.

Smathers' bill would have included Thanksgiving and Independence Day among the Monday holidays—as well as Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day and Veterans Day—but didn't include Columbus Day.

Mare Shed Tears

SILT, Colo. (AP)—Ever hear of a horse weeping? Mrs. Herbert Richards insisted it happened after her mare's colt got its head caught in a steel drum sunk in a field. As she tended to the hungry colt, Mrs. Richards said she noticed big tears rolling from the mare's eyes.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — The congressional deadlock over regulation of the $40 billion mutual fund industry may be broken this session. But doubts have been expressed that enough time is left to enact a bill.

Chairman John Sparkman, D-Ala., told a reporter he plans to call his Senate Banking Committee into session on the issue soon. He said a compromise between industry and Securities and Exchange Commission positions "will be up to us."

The SEC has asked powers to: —Abolish the "front end load" in which up to half the first year's payments may be applied to sales charges.

—Limit sales charges to 5 per cent instead of what the SEC said is a present average of about 9.3 per cent.

—Require reasonable management fees.

—Bar the creation of new fund holding companies.

Sen. Wallace F. Bennett of Utah, senior Republican on the committee, said he doubts there is enough time to complete action on the controversial measure if Congress adjourns in August as planned.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Americans for Democratic Action has urged U.S. negotiators in Paris to take the initiative in pressing for a cease-fire in the Vietnam war.

"If Hanoi is unable or unwilling to agree to a cease-fire," said a resolution adopted at the ADA national convention Sunday, "the rest of the world should know about it and judge them for it."

President Johnson, welcoming the Association of American Editorial Cartoonists meeting in Washington, joshed the cartoonists that they would miss him. "All of me," he said. "My button nose. My cute ears. My 10-gallon hat. My big black whip."

Two Colorado Men In Crash Of Plane

SOMERSET, Pa. (AP) — Two Colorado men were killed when a light plane crashed into a farm field about 15 miles southeast of this Western Pennsylvania community.

State police identified the men as William Self, 48, of Commerce City and Anthony M. Martinez, 28, of Denver.

About 50 persons were worshipping in the rural Sarver E.U.B. Church as the plane glided overhead.

The plane glided for another two miles before crashing Sunday.

Poor Place For Plant

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Some city court workers were suspicious when they saw a "funny-looking" plant growing out from behind a small potted tree by the door in their building. A check confirmed their suspicions that it was a marijuana plant. No one could figure out how it got there.

Squids move faster than most other sea animals. Some can shoot 30 and 40 feet out of the water and glide over the waves for more than 100 feet.

CARVED GEMS

With the increasing interest in antique jewelry, cameos and intaglio carved gemstones are gaining in popularity. At the turn of the century, every well dressed woman had at least one piece of cameo set jewelry, and men too, enjoyed wearing carved gems set in stick pins or cuff links. During the 20's and 30's, less of them were seen in jewelry other than 19th century heirlooms.

Gem engraving is technically referred to as the "glyptic art" from the Greek glyptos meaning "carved". The use of engraved material for seals dates as far back as 6000 B.C. As civilizations became more sophisticated, both the quality of the engraving and the grade of material improved. From Roman times, there are many examples of beautifully engraved gemstones now in the world's museums. Cleopatra wore an emerald from her mines in Egypt which was carved with her likeness. She also gifted important personages with similar carved gems bearing her image.

In the Orient, carved seals were used—often of jade, carnelian or lapis lazuli. These are now prized collector's items, along with carved snuff bottles and figurines of colorful gemstones. During the Renaissance, Florentine gem engravers produced many cameos of a high art form, and firmly established their glyptic artists as the leading source for fine cameos in the Western world.

Because the occupation of gem carver has had lessening appeal for the young, it is in danger of becoming a lost art, making a fine cameo a rare and desirable jewelry item today.

O'Grady Slated To Head Ohio's Democratic Party

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Democratic state committee members meet to reorganize in Columbus today, with Eugene "Pete" O'Grady standing by to accept the state chairmanship he missed two years ago.

Departing State Chairman Morton Neipp of Toledo said he had "no doubt" that O'Grady, party headquarters director since 1966, would be picked as his successor.

Die-hard supporters of U. S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche, who was ousted in the May 7 primary with the help of Neipp and O'Grady, indicated they would accept O'Grady, but with misgivings.

Neipp and O'Grady won their positions in a 1966 compromise made to preserve party unity. Neipp served two years without pay. He named O'Grady to the new job of headquarters chief at a salary of $18,000 per year.

Both men backed Cincinnati John Gilligan in his primary battle to unseat Lausche, the party's aging and independent champion vote-getter. Lausche forces had called for replacement of both leaders after a victory that never came.

Neipp had announced earlier that he would not be available for a second term. He said O'Grady was his choice as heir to the job.

"I believe our party has great unity and we have a coalition with labor," Neipp said. "My mind is made up to step down ... I will not reconsider."

O'Grady was also Gilligan's choice as state chairman. His port was expressed in letters to committee members.

Pro-Lausche forces expressed concern that their defeat might cost large numbers of votes in the November general election, but acknowledged their opponents' strength in the chairmanship issue.

O'Grady and company are entitled to consideration in view of primary election results," said Robert E. Sweeney, Cleveland attorney, former congressman and a chief O'Grady foe in 1966.

Democratic committee members, one man and one woman elected in the primary in each of Ohio's 24 congressional districts, serve two-year terms. They elect a committee chairman, then resolve themselves into an executive committee.

The executive committee appoints additional members and its chairman directs party affairs. The previous committee added 18 at-large members, with eight vice chairmen aiding Neipp as chairman.

Neipp is Lucas County party chairman. He is also a law partner of Frazier Reams Jr., who, as the Democrats' most recent gubernatorial candidate, is titular head of the party in Ohio.

Nova Scotia originally was known as Acadia.

Police will make the presentation through the Dollars For Scholars group. Patrolman Jerry Adkins and Karl Samples are in charge of arrangements.

Plans are to attempt to make the scholarship an annual event.

More than 200 attended the annual policemen's ball Saturday night at the Elks Lodge, marking the conclusion of the "Police Week" observance.

Samples and Adkins were in charge. They expressed their thanks to city merchants who assisted with the project. The dance was held in honor of Paul Lemal, a retired patrolman.

Other members of the committee were James Woods, Len Richard, Orin Smith, Clyde Dillon, David Huffman, William Copestick and Charles Winters. Patrolman David Buckley is FOP president.

Metals Society Names Officers

Officers were elected when the Upper Ohio Valley Chapter of the American Society for Metals held its final meeting of the season last week.

They are: Robert Brosius of the Titanium Metals Corp., president; Larry Stefan of Titanium, vice chairman; Alan Sage of the Weirton Steel Corp., secretary; and Richard Hampton of Weirton Steel, treasurer.

Steven Farkas of the Crucible Steel Corp. discussed "Continuous Casting" during the meeting attended by 26.

LISBON — Approximately 450 attended the spring music festival presented Sunday afternoon in the high school gym by the vocal departments of Lincoln School and David Anderson High School under the direction of Leonard Welch, vocal instructor.

Biafra Rebel Leader Vows To Fight On

LAGOS, Nigeria — The leader of Biafra's rebel forces vowed Sunday to fight on after Nigerian federal forces reported capture of Port Harcourt, the last major secessionist city.

"We shall make it impossible for the vandals to enjoy the amenities of our homes," declared Lt. Col. C. Odumegwu Ojukwu in a defiant broadcast.

"We shall torment and harass them every time and chase them at every landing."

A federal spokesman conceded that guerrilla resistance might last nine months.

Ojukwu made only one concession to the peace talks scheduled to start Thursday in Kampala, Uganda. He said he would agree to a plebiscite in areas populated by tribesmen other than Ibos to determine whether they want to remain with Biafra. The Ibos are the dominant tribe in eastern Nigeria.

Nigerian Foreign Secretary Okoi Arikpo called Ojukwu's offer "ridiculous." He said federal troops already have occupied non-Ibo portions of the eastern region.

The Biafrans, after striking deep into federal territory at the outset of the civil war last summer, are now considered in a precarious state.

The Nigerian army said its 3rd Marine Commando Division crashed the defenses at Port Harcourt over the weekend and moved into the nearly deserted city.

Ohio Bell Cuts Rates

On Optional Services

The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. today began revision of rates for optional services as directed by the Ohio Public Utilities Commission last week.

Effective today, the one-time charge for a standard color telephone set is reduced from $10 to $5, Robert Sauer, commercial manager for the East Liverpool district, said.

Effective June 10, monthly charges for three other services will be reduced, he said. This includes from $1 to 90 cents for a Trimline phone, from 75 cents to 60 cents for a Princess phone, and from $1.25 to 50 cents for a volume control phone.

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

Eye Donation Termed Laudable

Q—How can I will my eyes to an eye bank?

A—This is a laudable wish that should be more widely adopted. State laws differ regarding the disposition of parts of the body after death. For this reason you should donate your eyes to an eye bank in the state where you live. The Eye Bank for Sight Restoration, Inc. (210 East 64th St., New York, N. Y. 10021) can refer you to the eye bank nearest your home. Your local eye bank will tell you the proper procedure.

Dr. Brandstadt

Q—My son's upper lids droop. The only way he can keep them open is with his fingers. What causes this? Can anything be done for him?

A—Drooping of the lids, when present since birth, is usually due to a deficient development of the muscles that elevate the lids. When it occurs later in life, it is usually due to a paralysis of the nerves that supply these muscles. This has recently been reported in persons who have taken large amounts of vincristine (Oncovin), a drug used chiefly in the treatment of leukemia in children.

THE FIRST step in the treatment is to find and remove the cause if possible. In some victims, an operation in which another muscle is rerouted corrects this condition.

Q—My doctor says I have choroiditis. What is the cause and what is the best treatment?

A—This is an inflammation of the membrane that lies between your retina and the hard white capsule of the eyeball, the sclera. It may be caused by anemia, tuberculosis and other chronic infections. The only treatment is to find and remedy the cause.

Q—I have been treated for two years for uveitis but without improvement. My vision is very poor. What do you advise?

A—This is an inflammation of the uvea, the layer that lies just inside the hard white capsule of the eye. It includes the choroid and a visible portion known as the iris. This disease is always serious and notoriously hard to cure. You should place yourself in the hands of the best ophthalmologist you can find. If he can't help you, nobody can.

Q—My eye doctor says I have macular degeneration in both eyes. Can anything be done to restore my failing vision?

A—This condition may be caused by an injury to the eye or advanced age. There is no effective treatment.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

2 Primaries To Influence Course

Reagan Seeking Top Spot, According To Rockefeller

By The Associated Press
New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says a Rockefeller-Reagan ticket would have "great strength"—but that he feels right now California Gov. Ronald Reagan is after the top spot.

Rockefeller, announced Republican presidential candidate, said Sunday he thinks Reagan's course will be influenced by the vote the Californian draws in the May 28 Oregon and June 4 California primaries.

Rockefeller planned to meet today with Southern GOP leaders in New Orleans where Reagan spoke Sunday. The two governors scheduled visits to Florida later in the day with Reagan making stops at Washington, D.C., and Charlotte, N.C.

The New Yorker's comments on Reagan were made on ABC's "Issues and Answers."

"He's getting increasingly active—a lot of TV work around the country," Rockefeller said, "and I think that he is pretty well set for the top spot."

Asked if he'd be happy with a Rockefeller-Reagan ticket, the New York governor replied he'd be happy to get the GOP nomination "and after that I'm open minded."

Reagan, a California favorite-son candidate who has said he would accept the GOP nomination but is not soliciting it, is entered in both the Oregon and California primaries.

He called at a Republican rally in New Orleans Sunday for the "great silent majority" of college teachers and students to stem the tide of campus demonstrations and stand up "for the true meaning of academic freedom."

"If students, urged on and supported by a radical minority of faculty members can take over and threaten our higher education system," Reagan said, "what makes us think that tomorrow it won't be taking over society itself?"

Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon was listed by the Gallup Poll meanwhile as the candidate with the highest public enthusiasm now—although the poll showed less enthusiasm for any leading presidential candidate now than in the past 16 years.

The poll found Nixon listed "highly favorable" by 28 percent of the people surveyed. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey followed with 26 percent, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy with 24 percent, Rockefeller with 23 percent, Eugene J. McCarthy with 19, third-party candidate George Wallace with 15 and Reagan with 11.

The poll found none of the current candidates doing as well at this stage of the campaign as did President Johnson in 1964, Nixon and John F. Kennedy in 1960, and Dwight D. Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson in 1956 and 1952.

In the Democratic presidential race, Kennedy issued a new broadside at Humphrey for "using a political forum to report" on sensitive negotiations with Asian Communist nations.

Humphrey had told the American Association of Editorial Cartoonists the crew of the captured intelligence ship Pueblo, and possibly the vessel, "may" be released by North Korea.

Humphrey also said the best way to get the ship and crew back would be to include the issue in current peace talks in Paris between U.S. and North Vietnamese representatives. Said Kennedy in a statement released in Washington: "It is my sincere hope that Mr. Humphrey's statement will not be damaging to the position of our representatives now trying to negotiate release of the Pueblo crew at Panmunjom."

California as the statement was issued. He planned to move on to Oregon later this week.

Humphrey said in Washington meanwhile he would win the Democratic presidential nomination if the Democratic National Convention were held this week.

"I think we're that far out in front," Humphrey said. "But the convention isn't tomorrow—it's not till August. There will be a great deal of tugging and pulling and persuading between now and then."

Humphrey's comment was in a copyright interview in U.S. News & World Report.

McCarthy, the third Democratic presidential contender, said in New York the "way to break down the ghetto is to build moderate-cost housing outside the inner city."

Six million such housing units are needed in the next five years, McCarthy said, and their dispersal—which he said would open new job opportunities for the poor—"can be attempted only through public planning."

"We are dodging the issue with plans merely to rehabilitate the ghetto without involving the rest of our society," he said. "That approach—which is alluring to many—is neither adequate, nor possible, nor moral."

Non-Talent Big On Television

It takes a curious type of non-talent to write successfully for TV today, says writer-director Herman Hoffman, who used to labor in the TV vineyards but went back to movies where things are calmer.

By nontalent, I mean that a good writer doing his very best work in TV can't make enough money to pay him for his labors," Herman says. "Let's say, for example, he sends an idea to a producer. A week goes by before he gets a reaction. Maybe the producer wants just a treatment, not the screen play, which means $600 and the writer is cut off. That's only two dollars of what an assistant director gets for a TV episode.

"OR SAY the writer gets the go-ahead to write the screen play. He's already spent three weeks in negotiations now, and should spend at least another three weeks writing an hour TV screen play.

"Now he's spent six weeks. He turns it in and during the eighth week the producer calls him for some changes, which take another week. That's nine weeks for which the writer gets anywhere from $3,500 to $4,500. It means he's got to do at least five shows a year for TV to make any money at all."

Most TV writers, according to Hoffman, have three or four scripts going at one time to compensate for this lack of time to produce enough, hence are doing pedestrian work. Even then the producer sometimes rewrites just enough of the script to get a writing credit and part of the writer's residuals on future runs of the episode.

"THERE'S NO HEART and soul in most TV writing today. About four or five years ago everyone in TV began writing for impact, trick stuff shot at crazy angles, to make up for lack of story. It's not writing at all," says Hoffman.

"That's why the old favorites like 'Bonanza', 'Gunsmoke', 'Lucy' and 'Andy Griffith' stayed up there this season. People are wise to that other stuff and aren't watching it."

Production managers, 95 per cent of whom are former writers, are turning out most TV today, and don't even call in the writer when they want changes in a script. They do it themselves or ask the director to make the changes, Hoffman points out.

"DO YOU REALIZE there's been no great talent developed in TV in the last 10 years?" asks Hoffman. "Where are the giants? I haven't heard of any since Steve McQueen, on the acting side. As for the bosses, who hears of those men who replaced Sylvester (Pat) Weaver, or Hubbell Robinson or Jim Aubrey?"

Hoffman is right. There are no giants any more in TV. Nameless, faceless managers have taken over the executive side. They make speeches once in a while before business groups, but no one is talking or writing about them in the way the Weavers, Robinsons, et al. were discussed.

As for the talent side, it's true that Steve McQueen is the only big star to come from TV into movies. Jim Garner has done fairly well, but the David Janssens and Vince Edwardses still are waiting for that really big movie since leaving TV.

NO BIG-NAME writers have been developed in the past 10 years on TV, either. When "CBS Playhouse" began offering a top of $25,000 for original scripts a couple of years ago, it was mostly the writers from TV halycon drama days that were hired — the Tad Mosels, Reginald Roses and Loring Mandels.

TV, as Hoffman says, doesn't usually demand quality any more, so doesn't attract genuine talent. If you can write what they want fast enough, and the actors are on time and in good health, that's about all that's required of them these days by TV.

Hoffman, except for writing and directing one "Bonanza" script, has spent the past year and a half writing four movie screen plays for the Mirisch Co. One of these, "Attack on the Iron Coast," a World War II story, is about to be released. The others are either in production or about to be. His only connection with TV now is watching it once in awhile.

Lucille Ball Repeat Winner

'Laugh-In' Wins Three Television Emmy Awards

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — It was "sock it to me" time at the Television Academy as three Emmy awards were given to the raucous "Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In."

The NBC show, a mad rock-et-gun combination of outrageous gags and blackouts, won the award as best musical or variety series, and special. Laugh-in was presented as a special before taking to the air as a series in midseason.

The show's platoon of writers won Emmies for best variety writing.

In the other major categories, the awards Sunday night had the look of a rerun. Repeat winners included: Lucille Ball, best actress-star in a comedy series; Don Adams of "Get Smart," best actor-star in a comedy series; Barbara Bain of "Mission: Impossible," best actress-star in a dramatic series; Bill Cosby of "I Spy," best actor-star in a dramatic series; "Mission: Impossible," outstanding dramatic series.

Other awards went to Maureen Stapleton, best actress in a single dramatic role, for "Among the Paths to Eden"; Melvyn Douglas, best actor in a single dramatic role, for "Do Not Go Gentle into That Good Night"; best single dramatic program, "Elizabeth the Queen," Hallmark Hall of Fame; best comedy series, "Get Smart"; best supporting actress in a drama, Barbara Anderson, "Ironside"; best supporting actor in a comedy, Werner Klemperer, "Hogan's Heroes"; outstanding writing in drama, Loring Mandl, "Do Not Go Gentle Into That Good Night."

Two of the supporting Emmies brought a sentimental reaction. The award for best supporting actress in a comedy went to Marion Lorne, the flirty witch of "Bewitched." She died two weeks ago at age 82.

Milburn Stone, the "Doc" of the long-running "Gunsmoke," won heavy applause as best supporting actor in a drama.

Two second bananas who approach starring status were cited for "outstanding individual achievement": Art Carney of "The Jackie Gleason Show" and Pat Paulsen of "The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour."

In contrast to the over-length Oscar show, the Emmy telecast ran an hour and 45 minutes. But the awards were deadeningly profuse; there were 52 categories, and 10 writers claimed their Emmies for "Laugh-In." The show itself proved an embarrassing role, for "Do Not Go Gentle into That Good Night," best single dramatic program, "Elizabeth the Queen," Hallmark Hall of LONDON (AP) — Baroness Audley is known as Mrs. Rosina MacNamee when she presides over the kitchen at the Marlborough Tavern in the working class district of Camden.

"I had to take the job to help out with the rent," the 57-year-old baroness said Sunday.

She was the second woman to become a member of the House of Lords in 1963, having inherited the title from her late brother.

The baroness commented to an interviewer, "The money I get when I go to the Lords doesn't go that far." Peers receive $11 for each parliamentary session they attend.

A spokesman at Morristown Memorial Hospital said young John was brought to the emergency room Friday evening by his mother, Jacqueline Kennedy. They were accompanied by a Secret Service agent and a chauffeur.

Patrol Lists Four Mishaps

An East Liverpool youth and a Canton girl were injured in one of four traffic mishaps investigated by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon over the weekend.

Admitted to City Hospital following an accident on Route 45 near Wellsville Saturday was Janice Crawford, 16, fracture of the left jaw. She was released Sunday.

Treated were Donald S. Hancock Jr., 17, of 1450 Pennsylvania Ave., driver of the 1967 coach, abrasions of the left cheek and contusions of the chest.

Officers said the mishap occurred at 9:35 p.m., two-tenths of a mile north of Wellsville, when Hancock's car went out of control after he was blinded by the lights of an approaching vehicle.

The front of the auto was demolished, officers added.

Another city youth was cited by the patrol following a one-car mishap on Route 30 near Cannons Mills Saturday at 8:45 a.m.

Charged with reckless operation was Melvin H. Clark, 18, of 317½ Jackson St.

Officers said Clark's 1966 compact received moderate damages to the right front and rear when it went off the right side of the road, came back on, crossed the two southbound lanes, struck the dividing guardrail and spun around on the roadway.

Two cars received minor damages in a crash on Route 46, 1½ miles west of East Palestine, Sunday at 3:45 p.m.

Officers said a 1961 sedan operated by Barbara E. Snow, 21, of 392 Wayne St., Beaver, was damaged on the left rear when it slowed for some chuck holes and was rammed by a 1960 coach.

The coach, driven by Steve D. Adams, 18, of Need Rd., East Palestine, bounced off the Snow car and came to rest on its side on the roadway, officers said.

A 1953 coach was damaged on the front end after it went off the edge of the roadway on Route 518, near Route 30 Sunday at 5:30 p.m., officers report.

The patrol said the coach, operated by David L. Todd, 21, of Lisbon Rd 1, struck a ditch.

Installation Held By Auxiliary Of Wellsville Post

Newly elected officers of the Auxiliary of Wellsville American Legion Post 70 were installed by Mrs. Norma Jean Poynter of East Liverpool Thursday night at the post home following dinner at the Plaza Restaurant in Cullcutta.

Inducted by the 10th district president, were: Mrs. Marge Call, president; Mrs. Betty Hoover, first vice president; Mrs. Nancy Moore, second vice president; Mrs. Carmella Boyce, secretary; Mrs. Pat Henthorn, treasurer; Mrs. Peg Ross, historian; Mrs. Helen Leatherberry, chaplain; Mrs. Naomi Dawson, sergeant-at-arms, and Mrs. Betty Maylone, corresponding secretary.

Ten girls and their mothers attended the Girls State tea in Salem Sunday. Mrs. Henthorn reminded that Columbiana County Council will elect officers Tuesday night at 8 at the Lisbon post.

Four new members were enrolled, raising the rolls to 128. Final plans were made for the 10th District meeting for which the Wellsville Auxiliary will be hostess June 2.

Mrs. Maylone, retiring president, received a past president's pin and a gift from the Auxiliary. Mrs. Poynter received a gift of appreciation. Mrs. Lois Burdick of East Liverpool, 10th District secretary, was also a guest.

The next meeting will be June 13 at 8 p.m.

Firemen To Hold Training Schools

Plans for two training schools were announced when the Hancock County Firefighters Association met Friday at the New Manchester station, with Lee Haney of Chester presiding. Six departments were represented.

The association will hold a training school in Newell Sunday, June 9, with Ray Simpson of the state fire marshal's office instructor. The subjects to be covered include pumps and hydraulics.

The association also approved an advance training school in the near future under the direction of Jack Stankiewicz of Weirton Heights. The school will be held three weekends for a total of 26 hours. The class will be limited to 20.

The group went on record as favoring the compiling of a state fire code to be made available to all departments for use as guidelines in operations.

The officers of the association will visit each department in the county to present plans for future activities.

Giant manta rays of the eastern tropical Pacific have a known wingspread of 22 feet; some reportedly grow even larger. Mantas move through water by flapping their large pectoral "wings."

Midland Prom Leaders

Lover's World" was the theme of the annual junior-senior prom at Midland's Lincoln High School Friday night at the gym.

Miss Cohara was escorted by Dick Stoffel, left. Mc-

Shane escorted Dolly Preda, second from right.

Fifty-two couples attended the event. A large mural was hung on one side of the gym and pink and white streamers covered the dancing area, with a silver reflecting globe suspended from the ceiling.

Music was provided by "The Pooks." Six junior girls served refreshments, with Mrs. Dorothy Norton, teacher, in charge.

A post-prom party was held at the USA-CIO hall from midnight to 5 a.m. with music provided by "The Dukes." Mrs. Stephen Francis headed the post-prom committee. Dennis Cambier is junior class sponsor.

4 Craft Ransacked At Local Boat Club

Four pleasure craft at the Ohio Valley Boat Club on the River Rd. were ransacked over the weekend and various pieces of equipment stolen.

Reporting the thefts Friday night or Saturday were Dan Bekar of 152 Center St., spot light and fire extinguisher; Ray Smith of Broadway Circle, an air horn valued at $15; Charles Martin of 1006 Bradshaw Ave., a fire extinguisher and fishing rod and reel, and Paul O'Hara of 203 Maplewood Ave., two sweaters, a flashlight and a penknife.

Bekar reported last week that his boat had been ransacked and a radio speaker was damaged at that time.

Fortune Teller's Prediction True, She Weds Millionaire

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A fortune teller once told divorcee Myrna Odell she would marry a millionaire and be famous before she was 32.

Today her age was still her secret but she is the new Mrs. Russell A. Firestone Jr., wife of the millionaire heir to a tire company fortune.

Sunday, during a thunder and lightning storm that marooned the 21-member wedding party in the church for half an hour after the wedding, the reporter married the man she met during an interview for her newspaper.

Five uniformed security guards hired to keep away curiosity seekers hauled flowers in and out and held umbrellas.

The bride's father, airline pilot Peter Odell, was best man. Her sister, Joan, was maid of honor.

After a reception at the swank Bath Club, the couple left for what was described as an extended honeymoon in Hawaii and the Far East.

When the new Mrs. Firestone was a society writer on the Miami News, she and two other Miami girls attended one of the city's famed "millionaire parties." Both her companions later married the men they dated, but she did not. That's when she consulted the fortune-teller and told her colleagues the verdict: A husband and fame before age 32.

Later she moved her typewriter to the Palm Beach Post-Times where she met Firestone while on assignment.

It was Firestone's fourth marriage and his new wife's second. Her first marriage ended in divorce. She has daughters 11 and 10.

New Market Looms For Hawaiian Poi

HONOLULU (AP) — Hawaiian poi, made from the taro plant root, may enter into a new market — cereal substitute for hypo-allergic babies — but only after a great many ifs and maybes are answered.

Dr. Ralph Platon, head of Honolulu's Children's Hospital and professor of pediatrics at the University of Hawaii, said "If poi is marketed, it must be labeled distinctly that it is a pure product. This is to guard against potential deficiency by people using it."

Speaking at a seminar, Dr. Platon said, however, there has not been enough extensive studies to successfully measure poi's effectiveness as a baby food.

Cynthia Crawford, step-daughter of William Saloon of 912 Avondale St., suffered a fracture of the left wrist in the fall.

Others treated Saturday were: Mrs. Donna Kozel, of St. Clair Ext., fractured left fifth toe from a bump against a chair; Pearl Hubbard of 624 Line St., Chester, injury of the left arm in a fall in the yard.

Jay Mathews, son of Donald Mathews of Highland Dr. RD 2, contusion as a left toe when a window fell; Dale Jarvis, son of Herman Jarvis of Hammondsville RD 1, a burn on the second finger of the right hand when he ignited a paper cup.

Treated Sunday were: Leona Reed, daughter of Earl Reed of Georgetown RD 1, laceration of the left leg on a rusty nail; Darla Stansbury, daughter of Richard Stansbury of Anderson Blvd., laceration of the right knee in a fall, and Craig Bowen of 2200 Crawford Ave., injury of the left leg when bitten by a dog.

Thefts Reported To Police Here

Thefts of equipment from a tractor - trailer rig, a motorcycle and a battery were reported to police over the weekend.

Two slack adjusters valued at $20 each and two 12-by-14-foot tarpaulins valued at $45 each were stolen from the tractor - trailer parked on a lot along the River Rd. sometime Saturday night or early Sunday morning.

The rig is co-owned by Leon Huff of 503 Jefferson St., Newell, and Harold Whitla of 425 Commerce St., Wellsville.

Huff discovered the loss when he started to move the vehicle and had difficulty braking because the adjusters were gone.

David Howard of 223 E. 3rd St. told police Sunday someone stole a 1949 Harley - Davidson motorcycle from a garage behind the Manor Hotel.

He said the seat and gas tank had been removed because he was in the process of painting the vehicle. Patrolman K. J. Montgomery said a hasp had been pried loose from the garage door to gain entry.

Robert C. Kays of 427 Prospect St. told police a 12-volt battery was removed from his 1963 convertible Saturday night or Sunday morning. The battery was valued at $20.

Parked Car Damaged In Salineville Crash

SALINEVILLE — Thomas Earich of 89 E. Main St. told police his 1966 sedan had been struck by a hit-skip vehicle sometime between Saturday midnight and Sunday morning.

The car, which was parked in front of his home, was damaged heavily on the left rear. Police Chief Gordon Sweeney reported.

At the beginning of 1967, more than 38,000 computer systems were in use in the United States.

ELKTON — The John Isenschmid residence was damaged by fire Saturday evening and an empty house on Pine Hollow Rd. burned to the ground about 10 p. m. Sunday.

Lisbon volunteer firemen said fire of undetermined origin destroyed an unoccupied five-room frame house owned by Clifford Westover of Columbiana.

Westover said there was nothing in the house to cause a fire — not even electricity. He said the dwelling, located one mile north of here, was worth about $2,500 and was partly covered by insurance.

The dispatcher at the County Jail in Lisbon said the alarm was called in at 10:25 by an Elkton woman, who said a motorist stopped at her house to report the fire.

Firemen said the one - story building had burned to the ground when they arrived.

Damage was confined to a bedroom at the Isenschmid House, 2.5 miles east on County Rd. 419, where an electric heater evidently started the blaze, firemen said. There was smoke and water damage. The family carried possessions from the house until firemen arrived. Mrs. Isenschmid called the alarm at 5:13.

Action Urged On Road Hazard Of Route 7-30

LISBON — Judge Louis Tobin of Columbiana County Probate Court and John Ursu, county engineer, will go to the Ohio Highway Department Division 11 headquarters at New Philadelphia Tuesday to ask for action to correct a traffic hazard at the intersection of Routes 30, 7 and old Route 30 just west of the Super 30 Drive-In Theater.

The two officials joined in a letter to the highway department early last month, urging that something be done before someone is badly hurt or killed.

The intersection has four-way stop signs, but the officials say it is their observation that a great many drivers ignore the signs. A hump on old Route 30 just south of the new throughfare, adds to the hazard, they said.

MD Unit To Elect

LISBON — The Columbiana County Muscular Dystrophy chapter will meet tonight at 7:30 at the VFW post here. The group will elect a new executive board from which officers then will be chosen. Plans will be made for a summer camp for county MD patients, Harry Glaven of East Palestine, president, said.

How Can You Make A Big Splash

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

If your swimming pool isn't equipped with underwater light play, insets of tropical plants and piped music, you can still make a big splash by "going psychedelic" with a bucket of paint.

The growing interest in decorative art in pools is taking inspiration from the flower power movement. The idea, this year, is to make the design big—big—big.

Color has been lending individuality to fashionable pools. Once you have the biggest, how else can you out-pool your friends?

One interior designer tiled his pool in whites, browns, aqua—the same colors used in surrounding bath houses. One laughing boy veered to the comic with a design of a huge snapping turtle with a big toe in its jaws. The 10-foot turtle looks pretty lifelike in his aquatic setting at the bottom of the pool and frightening enough to keep strangers away.

ONE POOL host has had a painted a 20-foot figure of his favorite bathing girl in a mod bikini. If the pool crowd is on a cultural kick, perhaps a design of a giant - size musical notes will put their swimming in a symphonic atmosphere.

A gregarious type who invites everybody to swim might write an inviting message in wavy ripples. . . "be my guest. . . be my guest. . . be my guest. . . (And will they ever. . .)

Anyone entertaining the idea of aquatic art should use only paints that are made for pools. One well - known firm that specializes in such paints suggests that each type of pool surface—plaster, concrete, metal, fiberglass—requires different type of surface preparation and painting system.

Its booklet illustrating ideas for pool decorations suggests making a grid on the pool surface and then chalking in a design which you have designed on a paper grid that is marked off on a five - foot module.

YOU SKETCH the shape of your pool, keeping the design very large. Blues, whites, greens, seem to be the most interesting pool colors and you can still create psychedelic ideas by using fanciful design—even though you don't use "hot" colors. When you paint, begin with the lightest color, overlapping colors a bit to give continuity and depth to the art work.

If the module idea is too involved, an all - over design may be achieved easily by making a big cut - out of a design and then taping it to the pool bottom while you sketch the outline. Remove the stencil and fill in with details. Move the stencil from spot to spot.

It's a good idea not to get overly ambitious unless you have lots of time on your hands for this project. After you have the whole thing chalked in, begin the design and proceed in a way that will not look ridiculous if you must nip the idea in the bud before you can complete the entire thing.

think how captivated by water lilies was Monet. He spent a quarter of a century painting his great Nymphaeas series in his lotus garden, bringing to canvas the Oriental water lilies that floated in his pond.

There are lots of ideas that are fun if you want to gag up the idea. An enormous pair of eyes or great large lips might appeal to pop art fanciers.

An open whale's mouth might be a good art project for an area right under the diving board.

Question: We have a beautiful dining room table with a varnished veneer top. About five or six inches from the center is a blister. The rest of the top is in good condition. I sure would hate to refinish the entire top. Is there any way I can get rid of the blister?

I'd like to refinish just that spot if possible. It wouldn't have to be perfect, because most of the time our dining room centerpiece covers that area. What is your advice?

cut in the direction of the wood grain. Working very carefully, lift each side of the blister and apply wood glue under the raised sections.

Press down the veneer again very carefully. Put a place mat or something similar over the spot and weight it down with half a dozen books or something similar. After two or three days, remove the weights and the place mats.

If you are lucky, nothing further need be done. But if necessary, sand the spot very lightly, wipe off the dust and, with a very small brush, apply a bit of varnish.

QUESTION: A couple of years ago, I made a successful patch in the leg of a chair by using wood putty. After it hardened, I stained it to match the rest of the chair and it looked fine. Recently, when there was a gouge in a chair of the same set, I went to the hardware store to buy some wood putty.

He was out of it, but sold me crack filler, which he said was pretty much the same thing. I was very much like he putty, being a white powder that had to be mixed with water. Everything was fine until I tried to stain the repaired spot and got nothing but a muddy result. Any suggestions?

ANSWER: While these two products look alike and can both be used as wood fillers, the second item—the crack filler—has different ingredients and cannot be successfully stained. However, some types can be colored with water mix or dry colors. The label will advise you about that.

Suggest you dig out the patch and make the repair all over again, this time with wood putty and stain.

If It Rains Outside, Decorate In

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

What are you going to do when it rains? It's a timely question for do-it-yourselfers poised for outdoor work.

If you have an indoor project in mind, you will not be twiddling your thumbs in such a dilemma.

Projects can be inspired by new materials, home fashion or just to be different from your neighbor. Something you do not really need? Why not?

Homes are becoming fun because anything goes — if you like it.

INTERIOR designers have been up to good ideas in their own backyards, especially with walls and floors. This was pointed up in the recent S. M. Hexter awards to professional designers. Winners and honorable mentions employed many do-it-yourself ideas.

Any visit to any interior designer's home is likely to be a brain-picking venture. "How did you do it?" is the most likely question.

For example, one handsome 14-foot wall was decorated with just four enormous red roses on a white background. The designer revealed that she had put canvas over a rough wall, painted it white and then painted big roses, one in each three-foot section.

The roses were staggered so that one was very high, the next very low, another was placed in the middle and the last a little higher. Later, she decided it would have been fun to connect each rose by branches as if it were a bush, but why bother. It looked pretty without all the extra work.

Bark walls are in for revival and decorators are experimenting. Interior designer Michael de Santis did some in dark green suede. He also painted oak floors green after sanding and bleaching. Ellen McCluskey used burgundy - color lacquer in her own apartment for a handsome effect, particularly good, she points out, with modern art.

IF WALLS are bumpy, you will need to stretch canvas over them before using the lacquer. Apply lacquer, sand and apply more lacquer until proper patina is reached. You do it exactly as you would refinish furniture, she says. If walls are bumpy, it is best not to fiddle with the lacquer.

The weathered barn board look is popular. You take dark pine boards or darken them and then you rub into them a mixture of white paint and turpentine. You must experiment with the paint until you get the just right consistency. Four parts turpentine to one part paint may give you the streaky white effect, but remember it will look different after a few days when it is absorbed, so let it rest.

Paul Krauss and his wife used this idea in their old Connecticut country house. Krauss, a long-time president of the New York Chapter of the American Institute of Interior Designers, is known for his homey decorating.

He painted old weathered barn boards white, but it takes lots of courage to put white on aged wood.

HE ALSO painted floors of a new room in their house in a marble pattern. He and a friend took a chalked string, held it taut and lowered it to the floor to make chalk outlines of squares. Then he painted floors white and marbled with gray.

Many decorators apply that idea to metal baseboard heating units — white on black, black on white and even fortoise shell effects. Some prefer the solid color of the walls.

Audrey Fiber did a guest room of her home in a Swiss feeling and her husband painted and spattered the floor and then applied a hard coat of vinyl.

Sliding glass doors that lead to a patio from her big living room are safe because white muntins provide a visual warning. This in itself can be a good do-it-yourself project.

New Paint Job Will Help In Sale Of Home

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Every once in a while you hear or read about an individual who makes a good income by buying old houses and selling them without ever living in any of them.

Inevitably, you will find that this person prepares a house for sale; that is, he doesn't sell it in the same condition in which he found it. In fact, he doesn't even buy a house in good shape, because if he did, he wouldn't get the financial break which he is constantly seeking.

But he knows from experience that, by spending $2,000 or $3,000 in fixing up a house that he purchased at a bargain price, he can make a profit two or three times that amount.

The most important part of his expenditure, but not necessarily the largest, involves painting, either inside or out or, when necessary, both.

Here again he knows from experience that a prospective purchaser likes a clean - appearing house. He often willingly overlooks certain obvious faults if the house looks nice. And nothing places it in that category more than paint.

Why is it, then, that so many home owners place their homes on the market without giving a thought to dressing them up?

Real estate brokers tell us that, on the contrary, a home owner is likely to let a place run down as soon as it crosses his mind that he may sell the house in the ensuing year or two. This line of reasoning makes it far more difficult to sell the house and, even more important, results in a lower sale price.

First impression play a vital role in home sales. A buyer brought to a house by a real estate broker is likely to reject it mentally before he even goes inside if his first glance shows the exterior greatly in need of a paint job.

Yet the sale might have been made if the owner has spent a few hundred dollars (far less if he did it himself) on painting the exterior.

The Internal Revenue Service gives a tax break to a home owner who paints a house specifically for the purpose of selling it.

Since the details of this tax benefit are a little complicated in certain cases, get your local income tax office to advise you whether it will apply in your situation.

But generally, if the painting is done to make the house attractive for sale — and within a reasonable period of time before the sale — you can add the cost of the painting to what are called "fix - up expenses" when tax time rolls around.

Painting a house before selling it thus brings three advantages — a quicker sale, a better price and a tax write - off.

There are removable muntins in metal, plastic and wood that are ideal for such a purpose.

Steel Woos US. Buyers

CLEVELAND (AP)—"It looks as though 1968 will be the year of the customer in the steel industry," says Steel Magazine.

"Steel buyers seldom have had it so good—especially in a time of strong demand and threatened scarcity," the metalworking weekly said today.

"Ordinarily, a sellers' market would be expected to prevail with a steel strike threatening and consumers expected to press for strike-hedge tonnage deliveries.

"But that's not the situation now," Steel continued. "Mills and service centers are going all out to build a favorable market climate for domestic steel sales . . .

"Not only is the buyer provided market leverage by heavy imports, he's also benefiting from domestic steelmaking facility expansion and modernization," said Steel.

The trade publication said the steel price picture "continues somewhat fuzzy," but most producers and consumers say concessions from published price lists are "not severe or widespread."

"While one large producer is meeting import prices in some parts of the country on a selective product basis, four other leading producers say they will not cut prices to meet them.

"They maintain that such price cutting is not the answer to the import problem," the magazine said.

Steel estimated steel mill production at 2.9 million net tons in the week ended May 18, up a share from the preceding week.

Steel's price composite on No. 1 heavy melting grade steel-making scrap remained unchanged at $25.33 a gross ton.

Indians, Tigers, White Sox Win Two; Howard Stopped

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Despite their disastrous showing against the Reds over the weekend, the Pirates did not lose any ground in the pennant race and remain only 4½ games behind league-leading St. Louis.

The Cardinals also are having their troubles, mainly hitting, and have dropped four straight. The Pirates outscored the Cardinals 3-2 in last week's three game series, but the Redbirds took two 1-0 games.

Lack of hitting is the ready explanation for the Pirates' problems, but lack of clutch-hitting is the real culprit. The Bucs got 11 hits in each of the first two games against the Reds, which should be enough, but didn't take advantage of the opportunities and scored just a total of five runs in the two games. This is an improvement on the way things were going, but the streak of fantastic pitching, as expected, came to an end, and the meager output of runs was not enough for Pittsburgh.

IN DESPERATION yesterday manager Larry Shepard benched Gene Alley, Bill Mazeroski and Donn Clendenon. Alley and Mazeroski are in horrible slumps, but Shepard learned (or let's hope he learned) that the pirates defense shows gaping holes when these fine fielders are not at short and second. Jose Pagan and Chuck Hiller, the replacements, let a number of balls get through that would have been turned into outs by Alley or Mazeroski. Manny Jimenez, who started in left field, also leaves quite a bit to be desired defensively. The Reds were not hitting the ball too hard against Steve Blass, but the defensive letdown was fatal to the Buc righty.

The weekend series also showed that the bullpen, outside of ancients Ron Kline and Roy Face, could stand some improvement.

One bright spot in the Pirate picture is catcher Jerry May. The young receiver, who has been something of an iron-man this season, lost a fingernail in the first inning of Saturday's game, and had to leave. But he was right back in there yesterday. Defensively, May has improved tremendously over last season. Thursday night he made a great throw to nail Lou Brock, top base-stealer in the majors last season.

IF THE PIRATES aren't hitting, at least they are running more. The Bucs stole three bases Thursday night against Tim McCarver, the fine catcher of the Cards, and are leading the majors in stolen bases. Maury Wills is the individual leader with 12.

Bob Veale, in his 13-strikeout performance Thursday night, was extremely fast, "throwing smoke," as the ballplayers say. Veale was giving the Cardinal batters the "radio ball," the one you can hear but can't see. Never known for his control, the big lefty threw over 130 pitches in his shutout effort, walking two and going 3-2 on many hitters.

The Pirates should stay away from the cameras. The team is 2-9 in televised contests, including the nationally aired game Saturday (in which the center field fence was hidden at times from home plate by fog). The next appearance on the tube will be Friday from Cincinnati.

TOM BEROVICH of Industry was named the most valuable player on the Steubenville College baseball team at a banquet Friday. Berovich, a senior thirdbaseman, led the team in batting average, RBIs, hits and triples, and also took the mound and tossed a two-hit shutout against Gannon.

JIM DEJANE of Leetonia will attend Baldwin-Wallace. DeJane was voted the best defensive back on the Bears grid squad this past season. He also played basketball and was a member of the track squad.

Roy Walker Will Run At Penn State

Roy Walker of Midland qualified to go to the Class B PIAA finals at Penn State Saturday by finishing second in the 100-yard dash at the WPIAL Class B championships at Hopewell Friday.

The top two finishers in each event qualified. Anthony Williams of the Leopards just missed by finishing third in the 180-yard low hurdles. Dave Grimm and Mike Lacey of Western Beaver did not place in the top six in their events, the two-mile and shot put.

Ken Andrews of Mohawk named the meet's outstanding performer, edged out Walker to win the 100. The Midland speedster was timed in :10.1. Upper St. Clair won the meet and Midland tied for 14th.

Columbiana Advances 2 To State

Columbiana High School advanced two athletes to the Class A state track finals at Columbus next week as the result of the regional meet at Berea Saturday.

Mark Young won the broad jump with a 20-5½ leap and Gary Schmidt placed third in the 100-yard dash. Schmidt ran :10.1, while the event was won in :09.9.

United Local failed to advance anyone at the meet.

The Ganges River empties into the Bay of Bengal.

Mount Union Wins Ohio Track Meet

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Milt Gess was named the meet's outstanding performer after leading the Mount Union Purple Raiders to the Ohio Conference track and field championships.

Mount Union rolled up 139 points while its closest competitor, Baldwin-Wallace, could manage only 84. Ohio Wesleyan was third with 62 and Capital fourth with 47.

Gess won the three-mile in record time of 14:34.5, breaking the old conference mark of 14:51.8 he set a year ago. He also won the mile in 4:15.2.

Other team scores: Wittenberg 33, Hiram 30, Denison 24, Oberlin 22, Kenyon 14, Muskingum 12, Marietta and Otterbein 11 each, Wooster 8. Heidelberg failed to score.

Wilbur Brookes' Pigeon Winner

A bird from the loft of Wilbur Brookes was the winner in yesterday's race held by the East Liverpool Racing Pigeon Club.

The race was from New Carlisle, Ohio. Pat Connor's entries took second, third and fourth spots, a Don Cain bird was fifth and a Vic Gioveneco pigeon sixth.

This Sunday's race will be from Greenfield, Indiana, a distance of 300 miles.

Stanky's Chisox Up To 6th Place

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Here comes Eddie Stanky now, charging up through the American League standings with managerial plotting that borders on the mystical.

Stanky's Chicago White Sox swept a Sunday doubleheader from Kansas City 6-2, 7-3 and did it on a three-run homer by a pitcher and with three pinch runners all scoring runs in the same inning.

Brilliant.

The Sox, who started the season in reverse with 10 straight losses, now have won 12 of their last 16 games and soared into sixth place in the American League.

In other American League games Sunday, Detroit swept a doubleheader from Washington 5-4 and 7-0 and ended Frank Howard's consecutive game homer string at Six, Cleveland took a pair from Baltimore 11-6 and 2-0, California split with Minnesota, winning 2-1 and then losing 3-2, and New York won.

Stanky, who moved fast and furiously with second game substitutions, let pitcher Tommy John swing for himself with Oakland leading 2-1 in the fourth inning of the opener and two runners aboard.

John, whose 4-0 record shows no scars of the season-opening nightmare, rewarded the faith with a three-run homer and shut out the A's the rest of the way.

In the nightcap, Chicago was nursing a 1-0 lead in the fifth when Stanky went to work in earnest. Luis Aparicio was hit by a pitch and Ken Berry sacrificed. Pete Ward walked and Stanky inserted Buddy Bradford to run.

Tommy Davis singled for one run and Bill Voss went in to run for him. An error loaded the bases and Stanky sent up Wayne Causey as a pinch hitter. A two-run single, naturally, and Sandy Alomar in to run for Causey. Tim Cullen bunted and another run scored as the A's missed a runner at the plate. Gerry McNertney singled another run across before the Sox were through.

Three pinch runners, all of whom scored, and a successful pinch hitter, all in one inning? "Routine," shrugged Stanky, walking off.

The Tigers halted Howard's string which had reached 10 homers in six games, and beat the Senators twice with some long ball punch of their own.

Dick McAuliffe homered in each game while Al Kaline and Ed Mathews both connected in the nightcap. Kaline's pinch shot was the 307th of his career and gave him the Detroit club leadership by one over Hank Greenberg. Mathews hit No. 510, leaving him one short of Mel Ott and sixth place on the alltime list.

Gates Brown's pinch single drove hom Detroit's winning run in the eighth inning of the opener after a double by Howard had ignited a four-run rally by the Senators in the top half.

Sonny Siebert pitched a one-hitter for his third shutout and the 11th this season for the Cleveland staff as the Indians completed a sweep of the Orioles. Tommy Harper's bases-empty homer and an eighth-inning double by Tony Horton drove in Cleveland's runs.

The Indians pummeled four Baltimore pitchers for 15 hits including a three-run homer by Duke Sims as Steve Hargan coasted to the first game victory.

Ron Perranoski, who surrendered California's winning hit in the opener, choked off an Angel rally that preserved Minnesota's second game victory.

The Angels had scored twice in the eighth inning when Perranoski struck out Bubba Morton and got Jim Fregosi on a fly ball, ending the rally.

Sammy Ellis got last-out help from Minnie Rojas to win the opener on a five-hitter.

Andy Kosco drove in five runs with three hits including a homer and Tom Tresh atoned for a three-error game the night before by driving in four runs as the Yankees battered Boston.

Pirates Lose Again

Cubs' Righty-Lefty Punch Floors Giants, Gains Split

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago Cubs caught San Francisco's Herman Franks turning the other cheek . . . and Ernie Banks followed Dick Nen's left jab with a right smash that floored the Giants.

Nen drilled a two-run homer in the fourth inning of Sunday's doubleheader nightcap at San Francisco, then bowed out in the sixth for pinch hitter Banks, whose three-run homer powered the Cubs to a 6-3 victory.

The Giants had taken the first game 1-0 on the six-hit pitching of Gaylord Perry and a second-inning homer by Jim Hart.

Manager Leo Durocher made the sixth-inning switch from the left-hand hitting Nen to Banks, a right-handed swinger, after Giants pilot Franks replaced starting pitcher Bob Bolin with southpaw Joe Gibbon. Bolin, the victim of Nen's first homer as a Cub, had gotten two outs in the inning before walking Ron Santo and Al Spangler.

Durocher said, "When Herman put in the left-handed pitcher (Gibbon), he forced me to take out Nen and bring in a right-handed hitter. I don't know what Herman had in mind, but I certainly wasn't going to use a lefty against a lefty."

Nen was hitting .077 in 12 games.

The second game setback left the Giants tied with red hot Atlanta for second place in the National League—just one game behind the slumping St. Louis Cardinals.

The Braves swept a doubleheader from the New York Mets 3-2 and 2-0 for a run of eight victories in their last 10 games. The Cardinals bowed to Philadelphia 4-3, extending the losing string to four. Cincinnati slugged Pittsburgh 9-3 and Houston beat Los Angeles twice, 2-1 and 3-1.

After Banks' sixth homer of the season gave Chicago a 5-0 lead, Phil Regan came out of the Cubs' bullpen to choke off Giant rally in the bottom of the sixth and preserve Bill Hands' fourth victory. Mike Marshall chased Hands with a two-run single, but Regan got Hart to bounce into an inning-ending double play.

In the opener, Perry posted his fifth victory and first shut-out of the year in a duel with Ferguson Jenkins, who surrendered Hart's seventh homer and dropped to 4-4 for the season.

Ron Reed, Atlanta's unbeaten rookie, pitched a two-hitter in the opener at New York and gained his fifth victory when

CASPER COPS COLONIAL. Billy Casper, shown here missing a putt, shot a final-round 68 to win the Colonial National Invitational Golf Tournament yesterday in Ft. Worth, Tex. Casper finished five-under-par to beat Gene Littler by five strokes. His win was worth $25,000 and gives him $103,868.64 for the year, tops on the pro tour. (UPI Telephoto)

Casper Wins Colonial

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Methodical Billy Casper became the first player in golf history to win over $100,000 this early in the year Sunday with a runaway five-stroke victory in the Colonial National Invitational Tournament.

Casper's $25,000 first prize put him at the $103,868.64 bracket. He says the Mormon Church gets 10 per cent and the government the rest.

Casper shot a closing round two-under-par 68 over the tough 7,000-yard par 70 Colonial Country Club course to finish with a 275 and become a two-time winner in the tournament.

The victory also put Casper alone as the only three-time winner on the 1968 tour. He previously scored victories at Greensboro and Los Angeles.

The earliest previous date for any golfer to win over 100,000 was in June, 1967 when Arnold Palmer won $15,000 with a second-place finish in the U.S. Open to get a $113,225.63 total.

Casper was never really pressed although he started the day tied with South African Gary Player, who said he shot his "worst round in five years" in soaring to a 76 for a 283 total.

Gene Littler fired a closing round 68 to finish second with an even par 280 worth $15,000. Tommy Aaron carved out an even par 70 for $9,375.

Casper's only hint of trouble came at the par 3 No. 8 where a five-iron landed in the middle of the green and rolled over. Casper chipped back and three-putted for a double bogey.

"I wasn't too worried even then," said Casper. "I had a large lead."

Casper was so unworried that on the next hole he fished for golf balls in a creek while Littler putted.

Forward Pass Wins

BALTIMORE (AP) — There are two triples in the making in thoroughbred racing. Calumet Farm wants one; Peter Fuller wants no part of the other.

A triple for Calumet would be realized if Forward Pass wins the June 1 Belmont Stakes to go with his tainted victory in the Kentucky Derby and his convincing triumph in last Saturday's Preakness at Pimlico.

Fuller's unwanted and very improbable triple could also occur in the Belmont—a disqualification of his Dancer's Image.

In the case of Dancer's Image, the odds have already been defied beyond belief.

The gray Native Dancer colt finished first in the Derby ahead of Forward Pass but was disqualified when a urinalysis revealed an illegal medication in his system. Then in the Preakness, he was disqualified from first to third for bothering Martin's Jig and Nodouble in the stretch.

They were the first disqualifications in the 94-year history of the Derby and the 93 years of the Preakness.

But by the time the interference took place, Forward Pass had the race well in hand.

Jockey Ismael Valenzuela kept the son of On and On in good position from the start and when he asked him to move turning for home, Forward Pass sizzled through the stretch to beat Robert J. Kleberg's Out of the Way.

Another head back was Dancer's Image, whose jockey Bobby Ussery was held blameless by the stewards who ruled the interference was beyond the veteran rider's control.

Forward Pass covered the 1 3-16 miles in 1:56 4-5, running the final three-sixteenths in 19 1-5. He earned $142,700 from the gross purse of $195,20, the richest ever for a Triple Crown race.

Gene Goff's Nodouble, whose rider stood up in the irons at the sixteenth pole, was moved to third after Dancer's Image was set down, and James Skinner's Yankee Lad was given fourth money.

Apprentice Willie McKeever, aboard Nodouble, was fined $100 for misjudging the finish line, but Goff and trainer Gene Sonnier agreed the misjudgment did not affect the order of finish.

Another thing that did not affect the order of finish was the urinalysis given each of the first three finishers. Pimlico officially announced Sunday the urinalyses were negative. Although Nodouble was moved to third, he did not have to undergo a post-race test.

There was some big money being offered for older horses Saturday, and Dr. Fager got a big chunk of it when he easily won the $119,600 California over 1 1-16 miles at Golden Gate Fields.

Amerigo Lady won the $58,200 Top Flight Handicap on closing day at Aqueduct and Wh Smiley scored in the $34,400 Illinois Handicap at Arlington Park.

Waterford Jockeys Go To Court

NEW CUMBERLAND, W. Va. — Judge James McClure has set May 27 to hear a petition for an injunction against owner James Edwards of Waterford Park Race Track.

The petition was filed in Hancock County Circuit Court on behalf of Jockeys Milton Dalgo, Russell Applebee and Robert Wilkerson.

They claim Edwards barred them from riding at the Waterford Track in Chester because of their affiliation with the Jockeys Guild.

Turbine Cars Smash Indy Qualifying Marks

By DALE BURGESS
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Drivers of conventional racers were about ready today to concede the 52nd 500-mile Memorial Day race to one of the Lotus turbines that dashed to Indianapolis Motor Speedway qualifying records over the weekend.

But they could be premature, said S.A. Silbermann, metallurgist and long-time U.S. Auto Club official who heads the 500 technical committee.

He noted that the weather was damp and chilly Saturday when Graham Hill of London set the 10-mile qualifying record at 171.208 m.p.h. and Lotus teammate Joe Leonard of San Jose, Calif., raised it to 171.559.

Silbermann said the picture could change if Memorial Day is hot.

"The turbines' horsepower and torque will drop off at 20 per cent if the temperature is 85 degrees," he said. "They hit their peak at 59 degrees."

Bobby Unser of Albuquerque, N.M., winner of the last three USAC championship races and defending Indianapolis champion A. J. Foyt Jr., Houston, were among a host of drivers and car owners who said the piston cars will have to run a separate race behind the turbines. They say the "heat engines will ruin auto racing."

The Saturday turnout was estimated to 265,000.

Unser had the third-best qualifying speed of 169.507 m.p.h. in an Eagle-Offenhouer and will share the front row with Leonard and Hill.

Fifteen cars that qualified Saturday averaged 167.225 m.p.h. against 163.577 for the first 9 last year.

Mario Andretti of Nazareth, Pa., who held the track qualifying record of 168.982 with a piston engine, burned a piston, Saturday in his turbocharged Ford. He came back with a replacement engine that had run only 10 miles and was fourth-fastest at 169.91.

Weirton Madonna Wins State

CLARKSBURG (AP) — Weirton Madonna successfully defended its state Catholic high school track crown here Saturday, scoring 80½ points over runnerup Wheeling Central Catholic's 46½.

Only two new meet records were set, both by third-place Clarksburg Notre Dame which finished the meet with 31 points. Notre Dame's Bill Gainer set a new mile record of 4:54.7, beating schoolmate J. Skinner's old mark by 2.3 seconds.

Notre Dame's mile relay team downed Weirton Madonna's old record of 3:56.0 with a time of 3:53.5.

Gainer and Richard Mapisevich of Weirton Madonna were tied for individual scoring honors with 15 points each.

Sonny Liston Confident About Fight With Joiner

By BOB MYERS

Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Big Bear, Sonny Liston, was in a jovial mood. He didn't snap anyone's head off and chatted as long as his visitors desired.

The setting was a tiny dressing room in Howie Steindler's scrimmage ground for fighters, the Main Street Gym. Four humans in the crib make it over - crowded and Sonny chuckled when someone suggested there would be plenty of room if during the interview he stepped outside.

Liston, who insists he observed his 36th birthday May 8—1968, of course—is training to meet Billy Joiner of Cincinnati Thursday night at the Olympic Auditorium.

Earlier before a workout Sonny had been introduced from the ring by his trainer, Dick Saddler, who intoned:

"And now meet the former heavyweight champion and the next heavyweight champion, Sonny Liston."

The gym crowd, and the place was crowded, applauded.

Would Liston care to meet Cassius Clay again?

"Yes," replied Sonny firmly. Does he think fellows such as Jimmy Ellis or Joe Frazier would give him a fight?

"I think they will," Liston answered. He elaborated. "I think they would because they'd think it was true what they read in the newspapers that I'm 50 years old. Which I ain't."

"Would you like to meet either of them now or wait and have a few more fights?"

"I'm ready right now," said Sonny quickly. "The question is, are they?"

Laver Wins Net Title, Tilden Called Greatest

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "Rod Laver is great, but I'll still have to stick with Bill Tilden as the best tennis player of all time."

The speaker was Henry Benisch, veteran tennis official and member of the West Side Tennis Club in Forest Hills, N.Y., who has been watching the great and near great for 54 years.

"As a man and boy, I've seen almost all of them," Benisch said, 69, said. "Tilden remains the greatest I've ever seen. He could bring his game up to any situation."

"He was still a master craftsman at the age of 50."

Benisch was one of the gallery of 11,108 who saw Laver, winner of tennis' grand slam as an amateur and three times world champion as a professional, win the Madison Square Garden Invitation with a 4-6, 6-3, 9-7, 6-3 triumph over fellow Australian Ken Rosewall.

After the spectacular, fast-paced match, many of the gallery went away claiming they had just seen a match between the two best players who ever lived.

"It's true, it's a different game today," Benisch said, "and hard to make comparisons. The shotmaking is terrific. The service and the volley are powerful new weapons never before used with such devastation."

"But you have to compare players with their eras. I am sure Tilden could have matched the present-day pressure."

Tiger, Foster Meet For Light-Heavy Title

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer
Aging but still tough Dick Tiger risks his light heavyweight title against favored Bob Foster at New York's Madison Square Garden Friday night in the highlight of a big week for boxing.

In another world title bout, junior middleweight champion Kim Ki-Soo of South Korea defends his crown against Italy's Sandro Mazzinghi at Milan, Italy Saturday night. And, at Sydney, Australia, Monday night, Bobby Valdez of San Diego, Calif., takes on Australian John Farnham in a bout billed for the world featherweight title.

The World Boxing Association recognizes Raul Rojas of San Pedro, Calif., as featherweight king while Britain, Europe, Japan and some other areas of the world consider Howard Winstone of Wales as champion.

In addition, veteran heavyweights Sonny Liston and Cleveland Williams are booked for comeback fights but not against each other.

Liston, the former heavyweight champion from Las Vegas, Nev., aims for his sixth straight victory Thursday night when he faces Billy Joiner of Cincinnati at the Olympic in Los Angeles.

Williams, retired since he was knocked out by heavyweight champion Cassius Clay on Nov. 14, 1966, returns to the ring at Houston Tuesday night. He will meet Roy Crear of Dallas.

Tiger, 38, is a 2-1 underdog against the towering, 29-year-old Foster of Washington, D.C. This will be the third title defense for the African from Biafra who will be giving away age, height (6-3½ to 5-8) and reach (79 to 71) to the hard-hitting challenger.

She Loved 'Em All, 38 Cats And A Dog

HONOLULU (AP) — Mrs. James A. Scott had to decide "whether I love money or I love animals." The animals won. All 39 of them.

Mrs. Scott's husband was transferred here from Long Beach, N. Y., and the couple had to decide what to do with their 38 cats and one dog.

They brought them along—and broke all records at the state quarantine station for the number of household pets under ownership to be quarantined during the mandatory 120-day period for animals entering Hawaii.

Their board bill established something of a record, too. Mrs. Scott said it totaled about $3,500.

"I couldn't go through life with myself if I had them put to sleep just to save money," Mrs. Scott said.

ANN LANDERS

Don't Lock Kids In Car

Dear Ann Landers: Last summer you printed an excellent letter warning parents against locking their children in cars while they went shopping.

Often they intended to be gone only a few moments and stayed longer. In some instances they stayed away only a few minutes but tragedy struck swiftly and something terrible happened.

Summer will be here before we know it. I hope you'll print my letter as a reminder to parents that if they don't want to take their children into the stores they should leave them at home. NEVER, and I mean NEVER, should a child be left in a locked car.

A few months ago my husband was walking past a department store parking lot. He saw two children huddled together in the back seat of a car. Smoke seemed to be curling out of the windows. My husband tried to open the car door but it was locked. He then discovered the front seat was on fire. He broke the window, opened the car door and pulled the children out.

They had been playing with the cigarette lighter on the dashboard. It got hot, so they dropped it on the seat. If my husband had not walked by at that moment the children surely would have suffocated or been burned to death.

Please, Ann, print this letter. People need to be reminded from time to time. — RUBY.

Dear Ruby: Here's your letter.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

By HELOISE CRUSE
DEAR HELOISE: One evening we were going to a formal dance. The taxi was waiting and it was pouring rain.

I quickly cut off both shoulder corners of a dry cleaner's plastic bag so my feet would go through, opened the big end putting my feet through the holes I had cut and drew it up to my waist!

Got to the hotel, stepped out of the bag, my husband rolled it up and put it in his topcoat pocket.

Not a spot on my gown!

Who has full-length raincoats???

Nobody, my dear. Most automobiles don't exactly have clean floor mats, either.

By HELOISE CRUSE
DEAR HELOISE: When I use two for bathroom window curtains, one for a tank cover and one to make a seat cover.

The other four are used as they were meant to be — as towels.

It makes beautiful matched bathroom with little cost.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent
PARIS (AP) — Rebels youth in East and West have declared war on The Establishment.

In the East, the Establishment is the Communist party and its bureaucracy. In the West it is the bourgeoisie and its system.

Whether they are ruled by Communists or capitalists, growing numbers of young people see around them a world they did not make and do not want.

The black flags of anarchism and the red flags of communism flying over the stately old Sorbonne in Paris signal the students' rebellion which has pushed Charles de Gaulle's Fifth Republic into deep crisis.

"The bourgeois state must be destroyed," proclaims a big, hand-printed sign on the portico of the university's chapel. Another says: "In Warsaw, Prague, Madrid, Algiers, New York, Tokyo and Rome, students are fighting in the struggle against capitalism and against the Stalinist bureaucracy."

France is virtually under siege because the student protest has billowed into nationwide unrest, strikes and protests against the government.

Red China, too, is an extreme example of war against "the high and mighty bureaucrats." This struggle is controlled and directed by the followers of Mao Tse-tung. The target is the entrenched party bureaucracy, which after the Communist takeover in 1950 became huge and difficult for Mao to handle, a power instrument in the hands of others. Mao feared that the party would surrender its influence to the bureaucracy, the strong and authoritative Establishment.

In the Soviet Union, in Communist Poland and East Germany, it is youthful ferment which bothers the political leaders. All the unrest has had its distinct manifestations in resistance to established systems.

As in the West, students and intellectuals join hands in protest. In the East, the protest is often against lack of intellectual and cultural freedom. In the West, such freedoms are taken ter and I print it as a reminder to parents everywhere. Reading this column could be the most important thing you did all day.

Foul Ball

Dear Ann: Baseball season is here and you probably have received a zillion letters from wives of TV sports fans. May I play Ann Landers for a few minutes?

Dear Sisters: So your husband is glued to the TV? Well, you're lucky. My husband is a salesman. He works from 10 to 12 hours a day. When he's not out selling he's out buying — booze.

I've spent hundreds of nights wondering where he is, who he's with, how much money he's spending, if he's in jail or in the hospital, if he's killed somebody or maybe this time he'll kill himself?

Be thankful the big lug is at home, alive and not in jail or watching TV with some bimbo. Take an interest in the sports he likes. Fifty million Americans can't be wrong. — SETTLING FOR LESS.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

By HELOISE CRUSE
DEAR HELOISE: The life and beauty of a parchment lamp shade can be lengthened with a thin coat of shellac.

First, carefully clean the shades with a damp cloth and allow them to dry thoroughly. Then simply apply a thin coat of clear shellac, either with a brush or using a spray can.

Also they add a dash of fresh color and are real easy to take care of.

EMILY MASON.
DEAR HELOISE: I keep my ball of wrapping twine on a one-pound coffee tin with the end threaded through a hole cut in the plastic top. No more untangling and chasing that ball. The twine pulls out through the lid smoothly.

And a heavy rubber band around that can makes a good holder for the scissors I use in wrapping.

BARBARA BROWN.
DEAR HELOISE: We like steamed vegetables (fresh or frozen) so much better than boiling them.

When we need an aluminum pie pan from a frozen pie. Turn the pan upside down in a pan over an inch of water and place the vegetables on top of the inverted pan.

Perfect.
MRS. A. J. BIEMILLER.

DEAR HELOISE: Here is an attractive and useful way we used a big venetian blind.

We painted the slats different colors and hung it on the sunny side of our patio. We anchored it to the ground to keep the wind from blowing it back and forth.

With the slats tilted it lets the air through but keeps the sun out.

The various colored slats are quite gay, too.

ORA.
DEAR HELOISE: Don't throw away your cotton foot pads.

The terrycloth on the inside makes a good shoe buffer.

HELEN FALLON.
DEAR HELOISE: When traveling in the car, we use the pop bottle cartons to store such items as flash lights, maps, water glasses, pencils, sun glasses, etc.

Dear Settling: Thanks for playing Ann Landers. She couldn't have done better herself.

Second Helping

Dear Ann: My marriage was grand until my husband's ex-wife rediscovered him. When they were man and wife she never cooked a decent meal. The beds weren't made from one week to the next, his socks had holes in them and she charged him $5 for a kiss.

He has been seeing his ex every weekend for the past month while I've been sitting home with our two small children. She leaves gloves, lipstick and initialed handkerchiefs in the car so I'll find them. When I said I refused to stand for any more foolishness he yelled, "This is my house. Leave if you don't like it."

What shall I do? — FED UP.

Dear Fed: You both need counseling. If he refuses to go, go yourself.

The house is NOT his and you don't have to leave. He might have to leave, however, if you decide to see a lawyer. And if it comes to that, tell him you want to hear from him every week — even if it's only a check.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Junior Editors Quiz on

QUESTION: What is horsepower and how do you figure it?

ANSWER: It certainly is not figured in the ludicrous way our artist has suggested in his first drawing; this is not to be taken seriously. Horsepower measures how much power an engine may have. It is figured on a standard worked out in the 1700's by James Watt, inventor of the modern steam engine. Watt wanted some way of measuring how much work an engine or animal could do. He experimented with strong dray horses. If one pound of weight could be raised one foot in one minute, this was to be called one foot-pound. A powerful horse, Watt found, could lift 33,000 foot-pounds in one minute. Watt called the force exerted by the horse to do this on horsepower. Such horsepower ratings are still used for engines today. One way to figure them for gasoline engines is to multiply pressure on the piston by area of piston, the length of strokes in feet and the number of strokes per minute. This will give number of foot-pound per minute. Dividing this by 33,000 gives the engine's horsepower.

Judy Doll of Perham, Minn., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review, is selected for a prize.
